What is Up Daddy Gang It is your founding father Alex Cooper with Call Daddy Gang I am so excited for today's guest She's a rapper a singer and all around amazing performers You also probably know her from her song players which I'm obsessed with I feel like it's the anthem of summer Everyone is singing it Everyone obsessed You just came out with your new album Congrats You're thriving Thank you Corey Welcome to Call her Daddy Call her Daddy I'm so happy to be here You got to understand like this is so fire This is so so exciting First of all your outfit dude Thank you You showed up Thank you I just put a little you know we're kind of color coordinated too which we didn't intend to do So I was actually going to wear some Dior sneakers but then I have like a huge closet and things tend to always get lost So I look in the corner I see these little furry things I'm like I've never got to wear them and then it matches like the purple in my pants Yeah Yeah And then the blue and the denim I don't know I really put it on and it came out really good It's a statement I love it I also love when someone shows up like crazy shoes I was looking at the candle I'm like hopefully we don't burn on fire Everything's fine We're good We're good OK So your new album you just have to get into it because it's so fucking good And I'm so excited for you How are you feeling about everything coming out I feel like finally you know I I work so hard Um I feel like I work so hard and I always get underestimated a lot and um it feels good to finally have a body of work to my full potential And just out there normally I'm always worried about content and just roll outs and stuff But the music is so good that I'm like I'm going to let the music live right here So that must be such a nice feeling like finally working to be like I actually don't have to oversell over promote I don't have to convince people like you play that shit and it's great Yeah because that will drain you I was at one point in my life you know I've been signed for four years and it drained me Always worrying about a hit or worrying about if the next person is going to like this or like that Like now I'm so like can I curse Yeah I'm like so fuck you It's Coy's World all the way I love it How would you describe the vibe of this album Um Coy you know Me Coy is my first name Laurie is my middle name So um you know my artist name is my birth and I don't know I feel like all the legends with the self titled albums is like serious and I'm so versatile that like I just wanted to show every single side of me whether I'm singing rapping you know we got black rolls with some drums on there and um Man's World very very R and B and just can and soulful So yeah and then spend it with Saucy Like I love Fashion Week I love fashion I feel like I'm a fashion girl So I had to have my fashion girl song in there So yeah No it's dope There's so many different vibes in the album which I think is for me personally that's what I always want I always want to feel like I'm going on a journey Nothing All sounds the same It's really incredible I'm interested to know also from your perspective because you can brag a little bit here Like what do you think it is about your artistic presence that has everyone so obsessed and in love with you I feel like um since I started like when I first came out with Gan or hoodie um I've always been true to myself I was twisting my own braids My parts weren't even straight when I first started like my braids were just like take it out braid it and they were this small OK And I didn't care I would just go out and give them energy I feel like something that you really don't see especially around the era when it was all about how you really look I feel like you know especially in the culture when it comes to the female and black woman in hip hop it was like a whole thing of how you were supposed to look So when I came out and I just totally went against the fucking rules I guess or whatever you want to call I was like no I don't care I'm coming out 100% me my hair is not long I don't wear makeup I don't have the sexiest clothes You know I was very very tomboyish still I'm 26 now So I'm just growing into a woman and a symbol Of course I always been but you know clothes are just a little tighter and a little less clothes But um yeah I always had this confidence of just like a heart of a line I'm a tourist as well So that plays a big big part love love Um You've said in the past that you want to write songs about men the way that they write songs about women which I'm like Hallelujah Thank you so much Coy we need that How did you decide to even take that approach So I'm from Jersey I was born in Boston So all my family all my immediate family all my family is in Boston I was born in Roxbury but me and my brothers and my mom we moved to Jersey So I have my little family in Jersey But growing up being so close to the east coast there was a boogie and a boogie is so fire And I remember when he came out like first came out and he was just so real and raw and the stuff that he would talk about was crazy We talk about the girls He would really be like talk about you know his relationships what he was going through and the way that it's this one song he'd be like he says it 100 times He'd be like I don't trust bitches I don't trust bitches don't trust bitches I don't love bitches don't trust bitches Like he said it it's like 20 times on the song I'm like oh shit And I'm singing it I'm like I don't trust I don't and it sounds so good I'm like nah I feel this I know the guys are feeling this right now I need the girls to feel this just as much as the guys feel this It's so true Like even when you think about like fuck bitches get money like it's all this shit of like we get fucked and they just thrive they just thrive they get their bag and we're like oh we're the bitch is over here So it is really refreshing even just like players It's just like yes you're like spinning the gender roles on its head a little bit and being like no we're also players too which I love It's crazy because now like if you know the guys will be like yeah like because girls are players too right And I'll be like not hearing a man say it You're like yeah yeah Yeah it's not for you to say but sure Um OK so you kind of mentioned your family and I thought that's so interesting You grew up with five brothers you're the only girl brothers My fifth one is baby He's like seven now I think so Yeah OK OK So for basically around you growing up and you are the only girl How did that affect you growing up Um I was always a tomboy Um You know I always got my hands dirty I was never into girly things at all I remember my brothers used to play like drown me That's how I learned how to swim They used to like throw me in the pool and I could not this is like torture I could not swim for I didn't even take my first swimming class So they would literally throw me in and like save me type shit or whatever Like they'll feel like life in guard So I'll never forget like life was different growing up he was knocking beehives off and I was the only one getting stung Like yeah it was one of those things I love how you also start that by being like so they would play this game where they drown me and I'm like that's not a game coy that's not a game They get to drown you and be the saviors and you're just like the object and I'm in the shit drowning like yo my mom cursed them out Yo But it made me stronger Honestly Now I'm probably one of the best swimmers ever There you go You can do back flips you can do it I can race I'm ready to race anybody I'm going you're going to the Olympics OK Albums done Now we're trading for the out of here It's so interesting because you kind of get that vibe Like I grew up I only have one older brother but I lived on this little De SA and it was all boys all the time playing games and I was one of the only girls and it does kind of affect you in a way that like I hated pink I look at the studio now 00 fuck But it's like it's actually still very it's it's subtle It's not too like even though I love to get a little girly now though that's what I think it almost took me a little bit to love the girly side of myself because you don't want to be girly around the boys at all Especially when you're cute You're cute is fun Oh my God And I always hung around the boys So me I was like like a little like Tom boy for like I thought I was one of the guys because I did not want them to look at me in a certain way I really didn't and but but also too the guys respected me and I was such one of the guys that they would be like girl please Right Right I remember when I first started growing boobs and I would play with the guys Like I didn't want to look like I had boobs because I'm still one of you and then all of a sudden that shit just popped and it was over I was hoodies and slippers Exactly Um I'm interested to know because I have an older brother Did you ever have a similar issue Where did your brothers ever try to hook up with your friends or the other around Did your friends ever try to hook up with your brothers Um I was it was probably me trying to hook up with their friends because I was the I was the young my brothers are older than me so I'll see the boys come around and be like damn But my brothers wasn't going for that They find out that you did You ever hook up with them I would tell them I'll be like me and my family are crazy I would be like whoo you friend Johnny Bravo looks good boy He'll be like yeah Uh-huh Now I got to keep him away Now you won't see Johnny come over ever again I actually can relate to that I did try to hook up with my brother's friends and I remember like trying to sneak out She was like make out with one because my brother made out with one of my friends and I was like fuck you like I will ruin your life I'll hook up with your best fucking friends We were so close But when it came to that age where we started to hook up with each other's friends that's where it got like he's the older brother and I'm the younger sister and I couldn't have fun but he could have fun I'm like did you just fuck one of my friends Your brother fucks your friends Is he your friend full or your brother's fault That's a great question I think it's the level of closeness to the friend I think my friend should Well I would I could tell if my friends like my brother immediately So I would obviously tell them straight up like no bitch we not we not doing that Uh Let me find let me catch you looking at my brother one more time Let me find out I'll be like and I'm the only girl I probably was a little jealous or something like that And because it's like I don't want the drama because then you two are going to like not like each other at one point and you come over for family dinner you can't sit at the table with my brother anymore because you fucked him Yes OK And you guys get into it now you're in your feelings Yeah I think I think I'd be more mad at my brother in the initial but then my friend I'd be like well you just fucked it up Now we have to have playdates at your house You're home now we're going to your house OK God because you have older brothers I'm also interested to know like what's your mentality Like are you confrontational or do you not like to be confrontational Like what's your vibe with drama I remember like my brothers were very aggressive and we would play cops and robbers and all kinds of stuff Basketball and II I I'm so athletic I wasn't good at basketball I was good at more at football but I was very athletic and um I realized when they would get angry and fight like or what I would be angry and fight I could not win They were so much stronger than me and we were all like they didn't care if we're mad We're mad And um yeah I realized I can't be no boy I cannot be no boy So I kind of just I respected them I feel like I respected them and we were all growing up It was a different environment for all of us So I feel like it was important for us to kind of stay together stay together What are you like with women Like if you're getting in a fight with a woman what's your vibe So I always say like if I grow with sisters there probably would have been chaos because I was ready to go against my brothers even though I knew I couldn't beat them I was still ready to go in their face just as much as me I just wouldn't go so far Like I probably would have made girls are drowning Yeah exactly Unless I'm drowning So I um but I always told myself if I had sisters it would probably be chaotic I don't know how people deal with a house full of girls It's crazy It is so crazy because it is annoying to watch like how guys can just settle things Like even watching reality TV recently and watching the guys on Love island like it's OK bro Like yeah you fucked her behind my back but like we can recover girls It's like it's fine and then you're like concocting a whole plan of how to kill each other and like screaming It's just a different vibe It is It is I feel like guys too where it's like there's this thing where like let's just fight and then dip up after and then now it's like what up bro No grudges Yeah I don't know I guess it's a it's just a different way that we deal with like how we go about things It's probably better on our end because emotionally we're getting it out We're actually getting to like we're resolving things where it's like it's ok and then they're crying in the corner crying days later Ok talking about dating I'm interested to know Have you ever had a girlfriend tried to steal a guy that you were either dating or you were into No because I never like my circle was ok I probably when I was 16 when I was 16 But as now my circle is very small and I have mostly guys and all my friends are also gay as well So like you know um I didn't really ever have that problem I remember I was when I was writing that I was like trying to think if that ever happened to me And I was like no And then I remember in college I had my best best friend in college I was obsessed with this guy freshman sophomore You're obsessed and I would talk about him all the time and she would always put him down like no he's ugly Like he's not even that cute Like why do you like him Why do you like him Like always shitting on me like verbally just shitting on me to the point where I was like ok I guess I'll move on after two years and then I found out she fucked him Oh That's so crazy I would have had a beer It kind of like outside bitch hurt my feelings where I was like was it strategic that you wanted me to not like him So you could fuck him or by you telling me how awful he was Did you slowly be like he's actually not that awful and then you went and fucked him I was always that friend to give them the benefit Give everyone a benefit I doubt I'm like I see something and also too I was always that friend or that girl I'm attracted to what I'm attracted to I really like what I like like I don't have a certain type Like I might really catch you off guard and be like damn you're like and yeah I'm like I see that So if a girl is like no he's ugly or he's this he's that I'd be like you see what I see in whatever girl because I don't care like you don't got to worry about that I'll just go do it You're good Yeah but be spiteful Do you believe that friends with benefits can work No I feel like it's either it's either we're going to be friends or we're going to be fucking I don't think we could be fucking in being friends at the same time It's kind of hard as me I'm I get emotionally attached like you know and then the dick might be so good Then what Like I don't want anyone else to have it Right And then after you're fucking then you can't be friends and then we can't be friends No I want I want to marry you I'm a relationship I want a relationship You know anybody that I am single and I'm dating But you know someone if I feel like this is like the one then we should lock in on that level and just kind of focus on us Um Yeah because I'm also like I could please myself very very well I'm not going to lie You know I could go I go a couple of weeks a couple of months without some dick I could please myself Very very well So I love that we need more of that energy for women Like too many women are like well I haven't had dick in a week I guess I got to put up with an asshole I'm like do you have vibrator on your fingers Something anything like you could just I love pleasing myself I'm not going to lie I feel like it's something I started I started doing a lot of mast masturbating recently within this year I would say because it's just like I'm so busy and I get turned off so fast But I do like sex too though Like I'm a big freak So so did you not masturbate before this year or You're just saying you're doing it more I was I masturbated before but I feel like I'm I'm more like into myself this year I probably do it more this year Like talk to me about that Yeah because you know like I started going to the sex store I never really went into the sex store I feel like I'm getting older too So this is me tapping into just a different life I don't know But I go to sex do I'm checking out different vibrators before I'll just kind of be like I'm going to just get the one that normally anybody would get But this time I'm like seeing which one you're perusing the aisles You're like I'm checking shit out Like let me see if this is going to like how this turns and how this is connected this way And Yeah And you know that's when I realized like I found a dildo that I really loved Like I you know would you describe it to me Is it just a dildo or is it like the rabbit thing Where also is the claw coming out It it has like it's like this Yeah Yeah Yeah It has a claw So it's like it's like shaped like this So it's going in and then it's hitting your clip and it's hitting yeah it's hitting my and if you turn it this way it's hitting my butt too Yeah my ass So and I like my ass a like I like my ass clement and stuff like that So I was I would just use it in the vibration for some reason It just worked right away So different that I'm like oh shit because I've used vibrators before and it was like I don't know I I rather I was like I'd rather the real thing You ever had that Like you're like you use vibrators whatever toys and you're like oh I rather the real thing Well I feel like that too because if you don't find the right one I've had that before where I'm just like you're almost trying to get the vibrator up to your speed of like I want you to do this with me and I want more and then that just means you need a different toy And like I remember the first time I found this one that was a rabbit and I was just like I don't think I ever needed another dick in my life Yeah because you're like my fiance But it's like he's like I have to go away for like a month filming a movie I'm like so long like it's it really is It's a different experience But I get it's like intimidating to some women at first because you're right Like I used to go into the sex store and was literally like head down didn't want anyone to see me I was like bitch it's a sex store Everyone's having sex and we're a woman like we should be able to please ourselves I feel like also too it teaches you more about your body totally And I don't know um probably gives you more confidence as well Like I love it I'm not against it I love sex as well But I think that like if you're one of those girls who just wants to tread lightly stay focused and not be all in the mix just grab you know what I'm saying Get you one of them once and you know that way you got options with the bill though and then stack your nightstand lube a couple different vibrators Even when you're like masturbating and you can switch it up and you take like the dildo out Then you go to like the clip stimulator Like you're all over the place You're just like it's basically like you're switching position I don't use lube though I never use lube Now I feel like I do sometimes depending on the time of the month Like sometimes I almost feel like right after my period I'm like a little more dry So I'm like oh like I want and I need like a little baby dot And then I'm like whoa here we go But it depends the time of the month II I I'm ok So I can't have sex if I'm dry So if I'm not getting wet then it's a problem and then and then I don't want to do it because then it's creating friction and shit and I'm good off that Right Why would you turn a guy down if you're about to have sex and you can't get wet I would just be like it's not going in like what are we doing here Like this should be slipping and sliding Like I wouldn't even want him to play with me because it's wet like a *** out He's like oh this shit is dry as out like yeah you're now I'm going to be like because of you like no So you got to give me way I'm a big for play person and then also to spit does the job It does it does do the job We can just say it right there Spit does the job A lot of things can play as lo but like spit specific That's fine Perfect So you're single you said Yeah I'm single How long have you been Single for like almost seven months now Maybe 67 months How's it going It's good I I um I tried some celibacy for a couple of months I was like celebrate for like four months and think Yeah You know but it's good I feel like I'm dating I I met this guy He's so cute and he's so sweet But you know they're all cute and sweet in the beginning in the beginning and then it's dementors How did you meet him Um at a party So fun Yeah it was very organic That's so nice because I bet it's kind of weird for you now where you're like you have to meet people either organically like you're not going on the apps and the same thing So it's like through social media nowadays everything is like through the D MS and stuff But we met in person It was like really cute You said like you have a type you don't have a type What is your type I just like a man like I also started realizing I like older men Um Yeah I like I like I'm a I like I'm a little aggressive I would say I'm a little alpha I take care of my family I work my ass off pay my own bills got my own money like very very successful for myself So I need a man to come in and just like you know not overpower but is it is it called empower me Like lift me up and I'm willing to learn Um I'm always the one teaching So I'm just really into somebody that has a really strong powerful mindset That shit turns me on so well I'm not And then I like hygiene I'm big on hygiene You got to be clean you smell so be old and have hygiene When you say old c or what are we doing They're about to die So the oldest I'll probably go I'm 26 I'll probably do like 37 38 37 That's perfect That's perfect That is perfect That's 10 years older Yeah I think so Like 10

That's what my partner is right now 10 But I also feel like men are a little slow to mature So we have to equate for that little age gap issue of like you weren't mature we're mature But I love that for you also I agree with that I feel like it's really hot when you're constantly being the boss of your life and you're having to run shit every day You want a guy that can like be fucking dominant in certain ways and you're not also being like ok you sit down like oh like take your fucking dick out and you are telling them what to do just like you were two minutes ago to your entire team Like I don't want to be the one to like my titties is coming up It's all right girl views You know what I mean Like if a nipple pops nipple pops or a little everyone's happy you know I I hate these things looking oh great great No nipples out But wait what was the question So like I I just was commenting on I agree with you of like the vibe of having someone that's like more able to be dominant because you're such a boss that it's like I need someone that can actually equal me and you're not treating them like a little boy Here we go and not treat me like shit But also just empower me and teach me and guide me and um I don't know I like fun too Like I'm a nature girl like I'm trying to go outside and get my hands dirty like yeah take me and I love to eat so I can't stand going on a date and like having to go to Ruth Chris or something because all they eat is some damn mashed potatoes and steak like and then what kills me is when they say they don't like sushi it's not a deal breaker for me but it's just be like damn How don't you like sushi Like how are we gonna go to these cute sushi restaurants if you're not gonna eat you just ordering the the the bang bang shrimp and the teriyaki chicken roll Yeah the California roll like no my brother just doesn't like sushi and I looked at him and I said look at me right now You're single you're going to be single for the rest of your fucking life buddy If you can't figure out how to swallow a goddamn spicy tuna roll Ok oyster So he's now been going out to eat with me and I'm just force feeding him eat it and just pretend you like it And so now he's taking girls out to sushi dates and they're so happy when we go I'm like see just pretend that you like it It's an important thing from Tempura is a good one I guess that's not cooked It's a little crunchy But still no I need I need you to be into food Like I want to go fishing I want to travel I want to do like go in the wilderness and I want you to be able to build and fix something around the house I cannot stand someone who's just sitting around and just like you know what I'm saying working off their phone and shit like that Like nah like I need to see something Can you put a TV up or something Like just start building something something or be I want to call the person or just be the one to notice it I'm just I'm big on the mind like it would turn me on if if a man comes to my house like I just moved and my paintings are on the floor So if if I'm talking to someone and he's like yeah yeah we got to get these paintings up you know like boy he's like I'm wet I'm what This is perfect Oh my God you want to hang my paintings I'm wet He's like no we'll have a task Grab it But you notice So I get what you're saying like be proactive in like doing shit Don't be a stagnant motherfucker that you're like hello Get off Tik Tok that we love Tik Tok But still maybe not for a guy to be scrolling all day Tell me about your first ever relationship My first relationship was probably in like fourth grade There was this boy named Rashard I'll never forget he was so cute I had just moved to Jersey and moved to hack and sack and I was like this new girl on the block and um his mom and his mom and his mom like met and I would go to his house like my mom was cool as fuck you know but she trusted me as well Yeah we were but it was like play dates It was like little I guess I don't know Um My my I guess I wasn't in too many relationships growing up But yeah relationships are just this is my advice for a relationship Um I think that you should go with your gut You know I'm one of those people that feel like yeah you got to take time to build But also to like if you really feel like this is it go for it right away Don't waste no time It's never too early for nothing you know And um also to as a human being like it's ok to be physically attracted to someone like you know have sex have fun you know be safe have safe sex obviously and don't just be out there going crazy but you know normalize just being a human being and don't go looking for love because you won't find it That's a fact like you will not find love if you're looking for it If you're just focused working and doing what you got to do somebody will pop up and be like and that's what I feel like with this new play you just like popped up How long has it been Only like a fucking week That's actually the most exciting time is when you're at that week Mark and you're like they can do no wrong They're so cute They're so perfect And then if we catch up in a month and be like oh that guy he's fucking gone and then Yeah Yeah exactly I'm like but hopefully I don't know I really like this Amazing How would you describe your approach to dating Like are you straightforward Do you play a little bit of games Are you shy Like I'm not shy at all I'm very straightforward I'll get to the point I'm like what's up You got a girlfriend Hey hi baby What's going on You got to go ok Like that has that always worked for you Um Probably not I'm a busy person So I really like I'm precious about time Do you usually only talk to one guy or do you usually have like a couple of people in a rotation I wouldn't be like fucking multiple guys at one time That's something I can't do But I would talk to guys because it's like you got to keep your options open you got to keep your options open One thing about these guys they keep their options open but like you don't want to be fucking all your options That's something you don't want to do You know and it feels good when someone's acting up and you're like all right like you really trying to play me right now like because this one over here is probably willing to do it all for me and you're over here playing like ok like you're trying to take me to Ruth's Chris and he's taking me to MauA So what the fuck bitch we're going to sushi and you're taking me for a steak and mashed potatoes I don't think so I think so That's funny because I think back to when I was in the dating game very heavy and I used to talk to so many guys and would have like a rotation or a roster or whatever you want to call it But I would get so stressed because I would have like in the beginning days like a couple of really good banger stories that I would always tell that I was like this makes them think you're funny and this one makes them fall in love But then I would forget Who did I tell that story to So I started a notes app I'm not kidding you I started a notes app and I'd be like I already told like the college blah blah blah story to this one And I would have a note type of which ones I sold which toys to because then you get your shit fucked up It's like a full time job No you want to know what I learned on tiktok This girl she was like yo she puts all her guys that play like play She puts she'll delete the conversation to text that and put their name as a coffin So I put so I got all my guys in a coffin So when someone texts me I don't know who the fuck it is So I don't even respond because it's like you're dead to me like you're out and it was like the perfect trick tiktok we lit sometimes What gives you the Yeah hygiene for sure Like you got to smell good Number one number two I don't like the ankles out Like I really don't like I hate when the ankles be out and the pants cut off like right here like I'm just I don't appreciate that You know I feel like everybody should be able to get their pants tailored like when things don't fit me I add a couple of things to the bottom or you know cut a couple of layers off on the top or whatever you know what I mean But like I feel like they should do the same thing They need to put a little bit more effort into making sure that they're close I think also objectively like men's ankles are not as cute as women's ankles but they wear the ankle socks So it's like what the fuck are we doing Like oh my God I don't I don't like they have like sneakers and ankle socks and then their jeans stop like right above and I can see the little hair and then they like the ankle I don't like that They're just like get it together I put on a boot like I don't want a boot I'll pick a boot a boo over an ankle Ok That's good to know What is the most cringe thing a guy has said or done to get your attention They do a lot of cringy things Like just being like I don't like when you come up and whisper in my ear all hot and wet I've been in clubs multiple times and it's like even if we talk I don't mind you coming and talking to me But like the whole like yeah I feel like it's moist it's moist I'd be like oh my God I don't like that Like I'm getting goose bumps just thinking you're like you can just back it up like we can literally because I can give great eye contact Like we can literally just stay right here and just talk to me You can even come a little but the ear like when it's wet right What's your go to move to get a guy's attention I don't really have to get a guy's attention Yeah at all Like I don't think I ever think about getting a guy's attention I just get it Um I love that I'm really that girl Like I have to tell myself that every day I say that being humble all the girls should feel like I always tell yourself like you're that girl But yeah no I I don't have to get this Can you give even more advice on that Because I feel like everyone watching this most girls are going to be like coy I fucking wish I woke up and was like I'm that bitch I am the icon Yes no one's going to deny me like how do you get your yourself when you're even in party settings when there's so many beautiful people around How do you be like I don't give a fuck I'm going to get what I want I feel good Ok So I feel like ladies here's some tips I'm gonna give you guys some real tips right So I feel like people will be a little insecure about how they look like some girls will be like oh you know I've had friends talk about their cheeks and have the most beautiful cheeks in the world their nose their forehead their chin their fucking you know all of us we all even I do it myself Like I'll talk about you know my boobs and like certain shit I'm like damn I need some bigger titties to fit this shirt or whatever So feel on yourself you know like really fill on yourself Get in the mirror practice your sex appeal like I don't practice my sex appeal but I feel like it's a thing where if you don't feel like you naturally have it find ways to find it because once you body that sex appeal and you feel like you have that and that confidence girl guys will fuck a tree ok It will fuck a donut anything with a hole in it So they will it will be amazing to have a a beautiful woman who embraces herself loves everything about herself and just has this confidence and is able to just capture you in a way where you're like oh like there's something about her that I just can't stop thinking about So yeah it's really like who gives a fuck what people say and really feel yourself No I love that advice too because I feel like it doesn't matter if you don't have what other women you compare yourself to having you're so unique and if you also walk into the room with that energy and you're so confident It actually does People look at you What the fuck does she know that I don't know because she's looking like she's having the best time and like why not Why don't we just enjoy ourselves and have a good time and have the best sex and enjoy our sexuality rather than feeling like oh I wish I could be like that girl Be that girl Just be it just be it just channel it It's so it's so easy once you master it it's like something that you don't take it yet Have you ever been cheated on Um Yeah I have I feel like cheating is comes in so many ways and it's not fun but it's also something that really teaches you a lesson because I realized like as um you know I I me and my father and have the best relationship growing up you feel me So I would say I I'm like one of those girls that have daddy issues or have daddy issues had daddy issues Um So you know dealing with different people and learning as I get older is me really just figuring out what I want you know what I mean And at the time when you get cheated on it's like ok this just isn't it clearly So it's time to just move on and go on because if he's not like making you that person that priority and he's worried about fucking other hoes and being a dog Then girl you know how many men are out there that will treat you and it's not even how many men there's that man that you're going to fall in love with you will probably meet another guy that will cheat on you Another guy might do you dirty But at the same time every single guy like will get better because you know you learned from your last relationship because you're picking And I also feel like um it's a positive way to look at it You know I prepared you for your next bitch basically So if you you know your next bitch thank me because if you go in that next relationship or you go into that next situation whatever she you done learned a lot you know from even just cleaning your damn ass and shit So I'll be like you're welcome God put me in this earth to do Go ahead and just teach and be the best I could be Just be a great you know change the world and make the world a better place Um In your relationships you mentioned your relationship with your dad How did that manifest Like did you start to see themes of like what you were trying to basically like figure out within your relationship with your dad and playing them out in romantic relationships I would just try to find like I wouldn't know what was good or not You know I know Like my dad always smelled good He was a hustler he got money he he was clean he was fly So I knew that's what I kind of was into And my brothers also was on that type of time too Um but I didn't really know like I guess the true meaning of love like how to be loved for real You know my mom and my dad weren't really that intimate growing up I never really seen a lot of affection with them It was more like a lot of arguments more than more of affection So that that how to be loved and is a thing That's why I'm saying dating an older man It it makes sense because I need to be taught by someone who is willing to teach but also not manipulative and you know what I mean Because it's not like I'm a dumb ass I have a very lot of common sense But also you know it's a lot that I I I'm still learning about men No I think that makes sense Like when you meet an older guy again aside from them being a scumbag if they're like just going after younger younger women it's more just like you want to be with someone that actually has been in love knows how to move in a relationship knows how to treat someone right knows what they want That is not going to happen a lot of times with younger men because they're going to be at the same stage of you just trying to figure out and you're kind of looking for someone with guidance of knowing like no no actually we don't I don't fucking do that Like we're not going to have a petty argument We're going to settle it now because they're like mature and they know what the fuck that they want It makes it easier for you to actually enjoy a relationship and then be your best self because you're like oh this person actually wants to make this work rather than just doing toxic young bullshit That like how are we doing this How are we going to make this Like exactly I'd rather someone who's really serious with experience that serious with experience Oh I like that Um Was there when you got cheated on Was there any like crazy Like how did you find out Um I think I went through a phone I think at the time Yeah It's always now the technology I think I went through a little phone I did but I don't do that anymore Yeah I went through my phone but my gut was telling me like and I knew it and I and it was it was that's what it was But um what did you do when you found it I was pissed I I was ready to fuck Hm She goes silent for the first time you were I get angry like you can't I don't like to get mad because like if I get mad like I I don't wanna be mad especially over some shit like that Like I'll be putting too much on my arm my time my money my just everything into me my love my affection um to get cheated on it is just corny to me Like it's so corny to me So it it makes me want to fight but I would never put no hands on a man but and I'm not a Mrs get back You just really a dub like I'm gonna curse you the fuck out and then it's like bye You'll never hear from me again I don't care what you do You could send a million trillion gifts You could try to you pop up at my house You're going to make it worse Like don't come to my house don't bring me no flowers Don't be outside my house like no because then it's giving stalker like you're a gold you made your bed laying it I'm quick to cut a *** off quick Yeah that's something I always struggle with when women write in and they're like I don't know what to do Like I found out my boyfriend's been cheating on me I always want to say like I get it Some people stay and they can I could never stay personally because I just feel like it's actually not about the act of like cheating It's about the fact that you don't respect me and also that you can clearly lie to my face and be living a double life Um but I feel like everyone's got to figure out how they handle it But for the most part if you have a gut feeling yeah he's probably going to do it again If you take him back they're going to show up with roses They're going to feel like a piece of shit It's also for their ego They can then get you back and feel good and then they're just going to go about it again because you just rewarded them for getting back with them Yeah I feel like once he cheats it's like at that point listen I'm not taking back a cheater because you are already looking for something else You know what I'm saying You already looking for something else You already if you've been in something else I don't know what it is So at that point you have your mind made up you know like you're not sure I don't want to be around nobody that's not sure And a second option to nobody you know ok we're going to play a game block or not I'm going to give you a little scenario and you're going to tell me if it makes you want to block them or keep talking to them Ok A guy surprising you at the studio Uh uh Are we dating already No block Like what are you doing Like get the fuck out of here and like I'm I'm like get get and the mill record here he come in Hey huh Fuck you get in now I want to smoke with the front desk and my security Ok Ugly and picks but hot in real life I'm not going to lie Boys don't be photogenic so I won't block Yeah we'll keep him around Keep him Doesn't give you his phone password Once you're dating I'll keep her around I don't I don't ask Ok Has a girl best friend Always together Black black I remember this boy talk about he got a female assistant and shit They all like I don't know black I don't do that I don't say that it's anyone be a mom I know straight up have your mom be your best friend ok I don't give a fuck when guys have their best friend their girl best friend No me or her call you mama call you mama ok Calls his exes All of them crazy babe bitches is probably crazy We crazy I'm not I'm keeping him because that's probably true He probably got some crazy shit I think it's probably insane Got these girls going crazy as a far That's true But that probably means he's a little crazy too Definitely means he's crazy Everyone involved is crazy Everybody involved is a he's a mama's boy Ok So Mama's boys be a little tough Let's talk about I don't want to block them but Mama's boys are a little tough I do like an independent man So I I love a relationship between a man and his mom But I like the I like the fact that you know financially and like you know physically and like you know they can make decisions on their own you know what I mean Like that's what I mean Like I just hope yeah And I agree I think there's a difference between like there's nothing more attractive when you see a guy who is so respectful of his mom has a great relationship but there's fucking boundaries So it depends it depends the level of how intense is he mama's boy Is he respectful mama's boy or is he fully still sucking off the tit Yeah I I don't want nobody sucking off the tit unless it's yours Unless it's mine I'm not open to eating you out in the bedroom Ok That is a block I don't like that We cannot be in a relationship I dated this guy I was in a relationship with this guy He was Jamaican and it was like you know he was not that was just not the thing and we was there for a couple of months like a month or whatever And I kind of just you know but then I said look here sir let me do something Listen up listen up This is what you're gonna do or this is what this is what the fuck it is ok I don't give a fuck where you came from Boy you gonna eat this motherfucking boy and best believe I was the one all over So yeah so eventually you know he end up I guess I feel like I popped this cherry on that and um he fell in love with it That's what stopped at that ad So it was just like yeah that's a no that's a no deal for me isn't it So crazy one when guys are like expecting you to do swirly twirly gum drops on their dick with your mouth But then you're like OK your time eat me out and he's like you like use your fucking tongue like what the fuck like go down get it crazy and make it happen I think it's just like my only thought could be that they're intimidated because they're insecure because they don't know what to do Like we've got an a Rubik's Cube situation going down It's not as simple as a dick that you're like oh this is what I have to lift This is a little bit more like some guys can't find the save their life Oh my gosh But if we are loving about it and be like babe get in here This is this is heaven down here Come on come on in like are you crazy And guys that I just feel like every guy should do it I think you should do it with passion and probably take a class to learn how to do it too while you have it because it's really a key to a woman's heart You know it is that's how you snatch your soul Like that's this is because the man I'm not I had never had an orgasm in my life until I met my fiance from a guy eating me out Everyone I was just clearly fucking with guys that were just like they did it together like use your tongue as a muscle lock it and load it and go for the be like they couldn't figure it out anyways OK Good to know Um Sends random dick pics I don't like that I don't like dick pics I don't want to fuck on facetime and I don't like dick pics You don't want to fuck on facetime No Right Why can't we fuck in real life Just like come on over flirt by being kind of mean I don't like that Oh I don't like that You know how guys do that sometimes I don't like shit on you and you're like are we in fifth grade I don't like that No I like nice guys Me too has hooked up with one of your friends before No that's a no no you can't do that No you can't do that Ok You said it to me beginning that you're a freak because I was going to ask on a scale of prude to freak Like where are we at I'm a freak Yeah And what do you think that your best skill in the bedroom is taking it Ah I'm tiny You know I'm a little bitty tiny little thing I could take it What is your favorite position Uh I like back shots but I also like writing writing I can make myself come oh front or back Oh I just got to just push a little bit right Push it a little bit And so you would prefer oh that's hard I wonder reverse cowgirl or on top staring at them if you had to pick one I like staring at them I like to like whip my hair around like when I will have hair and wigs and braids and stuff even now like I'll still swing my hair and just you know I just swing it but swinging my head swing my head around I'll swinging this hair this head I the and just like I just like I like to look I like eye contact I like to feel like I'm making love That's why when you know it's important like when I'm fucking with somebody I'm fucking with somebody Yeah What is the best sex tip that you can give our ladies today of something You just know you're good at that They're like I'm kind of in a rat coy like my sex life sucks I'm not giving what do I do Help us deep throat bitch Oh This was not the girl Grab it and choke almost throw the fuck up when you do it ok Because that right there is gonna rail him right on And I was not like the best not the best I was always good at sucking dick but II I wasn't not into it So it was not something I like doing So it was not something I did So I guess I probably wasn't the best from the bitches that really sucked dick I would say because that just wasn't me and I hated deep throat like it's just not my thing But um past year when I was with my ex I learned some shit and yeah and that's when you realize like ok like you just you know you gotta just take it gag reflexes like you'll learn it all Like just and don't look ugly when you fucking do it bitch don't roll your fucking eyes back and shit Like just close them if you need to it's fine if you need to As you said that I'm sure everyone's right taking notes and they're like how do we not look busted as fuck while we're literally getting gagged to the back of our throat No I agree Even if you're just like look down or just close your fucking eyes or look down but bitch take that fucking dick it's going to hurt maybe a little bit Your shit might be sore It might be a little raspy the next day you're going to be swallowing and be like oh but it's going to be worth it especially if it's your man don't just go out there throwing *** because girl yeah don't do that But it's like you you if you want to trap him and you want him and he already kind of got you and you guys finally make it to the bed and like you know you don't even have to do it on the first day Build up build up I'd never recommend like sucking dick on the first day anyway I think I'm telling you I don't like it You got to be my man to get like Goggled on You know what I mean I love that because I feel like I used to do the opposite where I would just be insane You loved it and I wouldn't fuck them though and then they would be like wait what like what's going on I'm like I don't know like I just want to have fun and like I like it but like you are not touching me So I think it's like as long as you know your rhythm of like how you like to hold your cards don't give it all up Like yes that doesn't mean like don't have sex you can have sex on the first night but like you're obviously not fucking them in the way that you're going to fuck your boyfriend Like you're not you're fucking them Like oh this is the first time we're fucking imagine how I'm going to fuck you when it's yours It's yours Exactly So you never want to tease them and have them that How the fuck did you get your throat to prepare I just didn't I'm just like ah you're like oh yeah deep breath there goes nothing but block your fucking nose and then like yeah you know yeah 1000% You got to just kind of just force it You got to just slowly get in there with a lot of spit and you got to gradually start going going going and then you just got to get in there get in there Have faith in yourself Yeah you you'll do you'll get in there and when you get in there as long as you like they love the fact that it touches there So if you just like do it real quick and then gag and then do it real quick and then gag real quick Come back You have to stay down there for five fucking minutes You're just going down and you can make your noises Can you It is so crazy I I've done it that way and I had um full vomit coming up and I had to just it's a hearty meal I feel like my fucking neck will probably break because it's going to go down the other way No One time I fucking did it I told the story of my podcast I did it once and I had eaten all this French onion soup and he went down and I vomited everywhere and all this onion chunks came out on the oh my God what did he say He didn't care He was so obsessed He was like he was like I don't care I was like oh like you they're going to like I'll clean it up for you if they don't like you they're like bitch get the fuck out They're like you can get the come towel and the throw up towel and then you can get yourself for your own membership I never had an experience you know he's like picking out onion from his stomach He's like it's OK I'm like so it was so romantic and now we're engaged That's so cute That's deep deep gets too far Um OK I want to talk to you about some of the hate that you've gotten online like you kind of referenced it earlier but you've received some pretty fucking shitty comments about your body specifically one to people that aren't familiar what are these comments And also like how do you deal with the constant comments and fixation on your body So I've gotten like comments like you're skinny you look like an ant a cockroach you look like a boy blah blah blah But um I've been like skinny my whole life and then my whole life So it was kind of something that it was just like knew that was happening since I've been famous And like at first they would never said anything about my size first It was about like my overbite because I had braces and I sucked my thumb and then it would be about like you know just my parents I would say my braids and my parents and just and then it started becoming about my body So I started realizing too like every year they had something to say and every year I leveled up Um So I kind of just say fuck them I remember it was bothering me like a little bit of uh probably like a year ago when um when I felt like it was taken away from my music You know what I mean I just don't like that Like I'm so talented I put so much into everything I do like when it comes to my choo my fucking vocals going in the studio making amazing songs having all these hit records Um you know just being this fucking bad bitch on everybody's mood board like a fashion icon doing so many things like um so many nominations and just you know all kinds of blessings People still find their way to like create this narrative about me being you know small or whatever So it was just more so trying to just fight through that and fighting through that was to keep going keep showing them how talented you are Like just putting it in their face in their face because they're going to eventually they're going to be like all right like bitch we didn't call you skinny a million times What else can we do Like you're so fucking talented and at the same time there's nothing I can fucking do about my body Like I'm sexy as fuck like you know there's you know I don't want to change I could change like I could go and go enhance like whatever I want Did you ever like with all the negative comments Did you ever think about ever doing that No no I thought about like looking in the mirror like damn my ass was fat like my ass was like this big or if my hips were like this big I'll probably look like this but it was never something that made me feel like I want to look like that It's just like it was a thought because you know who wouldn't want like I love big titties I think girls with big fucking boobs are sexy as fuck I think it's something that I adore I love the jig I love the cleavage I love the push up bras I love the how they look in big t-shirts like I love everything about a double D triple F you know c whatever cup Um And I always would be like damn like if I had titties like that I'll be fucking doing the titty dan and shit too Yeah it's so crazy too I think as women I forget who I was talking about this with But we were like how the fuck there's never been a trend for a male body but there's always a trend that's in for you know the female body And so for you getting shit of like you don't have this you don't have that You're too skinny you're too small I'm assuming But the issue also is so then if you went and got a BBL and you got your tits done then everyone's going to call you fake and then everybody will call me fake and exactly they'll be like yo why are you But at the same time why would I you know I would say the same thing like why would you go and get your cause You know I don't know I feel like again they make girls especially women in hip hop You know we just have to do a better job by just showcasing more um real life shit You know I feel like because it's the glitz and the glams and how we are you know we are sexy all the time and doing a lot of stuff with our bodies and just showcasing and twerking and stuff like that Um It it would be good to switch the narrative to kind of change these kids' mindset and put them in a different you know perspective of ok let's not just make everything about bodies let's make it about who can cook Now let's make it about who could fucking fish the best you know who can wear the best sneakers or who could you know pop out with you know who can wear the highest heels and not fall like shit like that You know what I mean Shit that you actually like it doesn't actually genuinely affect the way that someone feels about who they are and the way that they look because at the end of the day the reason you're getting hate I'm assuming also is because like you don't look like some of the other female rappers in the industry But it's like but isn't that amazing that you have your own identity And then again if you try to conform then you're fake then you're trying to it's like you can never fucking win So it's like just be yourself And I agree it's like don't try to go with the trend of how you look like you are the trend be your own trend look the way you fuck can look And that's a big trend setter and I don't I'm not against any body you know enhancing their body as well Um If you get it botched and fucked up then that's just fucked up But now I'm just like damn you're fucked But I feel like as long as you're in this shit with like good intentions having making sure you're healthy following the proper procedures going to someone who's very professional and knows what they're doing Um Then I support you 1000 Yeah it's like do whatever the fuck you want It just sucks if why you're doing it is coming from a place of people making fun of you in the way that you look And so you actually didn't even know that you were insecure about it Other people made you feel that way And so it then you had to go and do something because you felt like so it's like it just sucks because most women are doing it because society is telling them we don't have this we don't have this We can never fucking win But I do hope we're getting to a place now where we've seen like one trend come in and then the next trend come out and they're so parallel opposite that you're like let's all just be good with how we fucking look And that's that I mean I feel like I kind of you know set the tone especially in hip hop you know you know for example now it's like me and you know we got Gloria now she's also very small I feel like she kind of slipped past the small thing like they still try to say talk about her little but for her but it is very cute and sexy but I kind of feel like it you know she you know I got it I got it so the girls could get it You know what I mean Like the small girl the petite girls coming in this because I went through a lot with it and now I feel like they're accepting just that rawness the organic the natural you know I don't have any lashes on I cut my hair off I'm just like yeah what more can I what do I want to say Just listen to me sing and rap That's it That's it And look at my fashion Who is your dream collab This question is hard because I have so I'm a fan of so many amazing artists Of course I would love a Drake feature He's fucking amazing I've been seeing all his tour videos fire Um I want a collab with Billy Eilish I think she's incredible I've always been a fan of Billy um Yee I want to collab with Yee Um I think he's fire I wanna say yeah these are all Dream Collapse fuck that These are all Dream Collapse Um And let's see Zie Um I collab with a lot of people that I dreamed of already Yeah No that's amazing That's amazing What is something that you're really excited for that's coming up that you can share with us I just shot a crazy music video with Busta and yeah he is about to drop a new album It's so dope because it's like um you know this is the hip hop shit that I'm talking about that This video is so major Like anybody that knows Buster rhymes and how crazy he is about his videos He was telling me this story and he was just like he was telling everybody the story about like how because you know I'm like yo this he must have spent a bag on this video It was a crazy production Like it's real Buster Rhymes like a real crazy video from back in the days like 2023 type shit So he's sitting down and he's like um you know I remember when me Missy and Diddy used to battle for the videos and like on you know if Missy Missy would spend like 1 million on a video and I'll be like nah like I'll get jealous So now I'm dropping 1.3 and then did he would come around and he'll go ahead and drop like 2 million and then he's like I had to hit him with the Jackson and hit him with 2.3 million So it was just like so fired to like I felt like I was like he was reliving the moment as well just on a whole another different scale and he still looks good He sounds the same and Diddy pulled up I remember seeing Swiss Beats pulled up Timberland pulled up um A O Jacob pulled up It was just like a like OK this is crazy This is cool This is cool as how this is cool as how that's such a probably a cool crazy moment for you too of just like growing up and like idolizing people like that and then being like I get to just stand in the same room as these people and like he's like pulling up as soon as he walks in they just came from cutting something in the studio He's already playing the reference on his song like just over and over again out loud Like they're just so musically inclined and just to be able to be in that setting with the music video Timberland Swiss Like it was just like oh shit And they they love me and respect me so much So that is so fucking cool and exciting for you You're doing so many big things Yeah that I have all these festivals coming just drop the album So yeah just really about to just have like a fucking great year I feel like I've done so much I've been I have three songs on the Hot 100 Billboard I've dropped an amazing album Um You know I I'm in the hot 100 most hot 100 Spotify artist So there's like Spotify has a top 100 artist in the entire world and I'm like number 70 or some shit like that Yeah I'm I'm so blessed though It's so dope I'm here Forever Last question If someone is becoming a new core fan today what do you want them to leave this interview knowing about you I want them to know that I am just like you Yeah coy Thank you so much for coming on Call Daddy The people are going to freak out You're amazing Thanks guys
