

Chelsea Handler

What is Up daddy Gang It is your founding father Alex Cooper with I haven't smoked in so long I always just take edibles You better not I'm going to keep your shit together I'm not going to ask you a question to fucking car this interview for you I'm gonna be fine ok But we only have one later So don't hug it I guess we can just we'll just start fuck it My name is Chelsea Handler Joy Chelsea Joy Handler And I'm at Alexandra Joy Cooper's house and we're recording her Who's your daddy Fuck call her daddy call her daddy's podcast And we're smoking because the last time I saw you you were bitching at me about hating you The first time I met you That is not true You were this is what happened No no no no Why don't I tell my version And then you go you go first So I came over to your ridiculous house that had no parking Uh And that was so and again today no parking So I went over to this house that you said don't worry this isn't my house like I care And then I you told me to lie down on a couch like I was about to get examined by a gynecologist And so I had to put my feet up like a little girl in nursery school and sit there and be interviewed And I was like who is this person Because my pr team was like you have to go do Alexandra Cooper's podcast She's the it thing She got some ridiculous deal and you have to go do an interview with her I go sure no problem And then the whole time you're like do you hate me Oh OK Just so annoying when people say that like do you hate that's all people say to me Do you Because just to be fair I'm a big fan I was so nervous I was shitting my pan Oh Thanks I got the roll of switch OK Question Where did you park today Uh Well it's funny you say that because I was driving myself today because it's raining and I don't trust anyone to drive in the rain Even my driver I'm like listen buddy I actually think it's fun to drive in the rain in L A because everybody's such an idiot pussy and I like I like the rain So I tried to park on the street and then there were about 40,000 signs that were deterring me from doing that And then I saw Alec my publicist and I said can she please open the fucking gate to her garage or driveway so I can park in the driveway and then he's like oh it's not open and I go no it's not So did you park in the fucking driveway So you have a fucking parking spot Yeah Well that's typical for a guest when you invite them over to provide parking As I'm gonna tell you the truth of what happened I was like going like this I've already stove shit like like sitting like this the whole time We're like hey OK listen to this last time we recorded which is almost a year and a half with me It's OK You you did that to me on your podcast You were just coughing my face and then I got COVID after it Oh I just got COVID too You gave it to me No I got it on Christmas Oh I had the flu I was getting a pox and I had monkey pox and well yeah a couple of other things OK Listen to my side of the story I'm sitting waiting for you shitting my pants I hate this I hate that you would feel that way I was just nervous I knew Chelsea fucking handler So it's like one of my first big interviews and so I'm sitting there and all of a sudden my assistant at the time is like Chelsea handler is there and I'm waiting for you to pull into the fucking driveway because I had a driveway and I moved my fucking car for you by the way don't add like I out of a driveway like I have a driveway That's so cool I'm so privileged I have a driveway Fuck you So then I walk out and at the time none of my team could be there So it was all virtual I walk out and I'm looking for Chelsea and Chelsea is nowhere to be fucking found And I'm like can you call Chelsea Like have her team call her like she's not in front of my house Your high ass was three houses down parked in front of another fucking house I walk up to Chelsea's car also everyone Oh Yeah I remember that I was just fuck everyone Picture this You're about to meet Chelsea handler for the first time and have her on your show Like I'm all of you watching shitting my pan and I find this woman in a car and I'm like is that her car I go to the window and I knock to the Subaru Outback and you open the door and I just get hit with a bunch of just like absolute paraphernalia And I'm like and you're like hey where am I I'm like hi I'm Alex So nice to meet you I think you thought I was the assistant You're like I'm going to a show my show bitch And then we went in and then I wanted to make you cozy But you were a fucking dress and you were a slut and you were like sitting like this and I was like we need to So it all went well and it went well But I did ask you if you knew who I was I didn't even know where you were I didn't know where I was You think I knew who you were but I know who you are now And it's very it makes me very uncomfortable when you talk about me in that way in that regard because I'm just I it's just makes I I don't know I become shy but I'm glad that we're friends now and I respect you I want you to know that And I'm really like impressed with everything that you've done So now that you have my attention we can have a more prosperous interview Total wrong use of prosperous Like what am I like I work in a like we've had a pro like we've yielded prosperous um grains This harvesting That's what I almost sounded like I I really appreciate your attempt to integrate the word um prosperous Yeah I know that You sound smarter than me So what what does that mean though You know like wash

yourself OK We did your podcast the other week That was yeah that was fun That was really fun And now we're here Congrats on your new Netflix Doc Doc It's a stand up special I know it's a special I said doc sorry I'm a doctor first of all And you should know that and all your viewers and listeners should also know that I am a doctor I'm a farm to table gynecologist and I perform all sorts of um I I can do so many things medically I prescribe medication drugs I've injected about four or five of my friends with Ozempic because I realized I didn't want to use it because it's silly like I I it's you know for heavy people I have people coming over to my house and I was like OK I can see you at one I can see you at two Can you believe the amount of people in L A that are everyone is on o I have someone that's gonna backfire something bad is gonna happen It's a miracle It's too good to be true You can just make people who've struggled with their weight their entire lives thin It's a miracle You know what's fucked up though Is I have someone in my life that needs it medically and it's completely sold out Tell her to come over to my house I'll inject her tomorrow What time is she free I can I I will have it at your house I have a semi glut Well so my doctor my anti-aging doctor just hands it out to anybody Right And obviously now I can't say her name but she I I didn't even know I was on it I went to dinner or uh I went she said oh if you ever wanna drop because I said and she goes if you ever wanna drop £5 this is good And I came back from a vacation and I injected myself with it and I went to lunch with like a girlfriend a few days later and she's like I'm not really eating anything I'm so nauseous I'm on a and I was like I'm kind of nauseous too but I had come back from Spain I thought I was jet lagged I had been gone for like a month and uh white privilege and I was and I I was like oh I'm nauseous too And then I'm like but I'm not on a and she's like are you sure And I'm like well what is it I go I'm on semi glut and she goes that's so so you look fucking great No I'm not on it anymore I stopped taking That's too irresponsible I I'm an irresponsible drug user but I'm not gonna take a diabetic drug for like I I tried it and I'm not gonna do that I'm not gonna do it No I don't That's not for me That's not right This is just that we're starting essentially the episode with just like disclaimers I'm on it right now You're not a fucking doctor No I'm not a doctor but go to Chelsea's house if you want to get on a yeah make an appointment with um with Alexandra OK So your Netflix special revolution revolution What is the joke that people are loving the most I think my brother my brother telling me that he had to have Children I said what to my brother Like why are you even a father You know you're not very good at it And my brother has turned into quite an asshole as he's gotten older And I he was like Chelsea I have to think about I had to think about my legacy It's like you're like you're like who who it's like who's behind you Abraham Lincoln What are you talking about Your your legacy You think people are thinking about what's going on with you after you're dead I'm like no fucking way buddy No one's thinking about what you're going to leave behind except for you You know I'm like your legacy is that you're my fucking brother When I saw that clip let me be so clear I clipped it and sent it to my fucking brother I'm like don't you fucking forget it I said it to my whole family Like it's it's a good one The whole thing is amazing Well thank you so much It was a really fun special to shoot like I love it It's very hard for me to watch myself in anything And when I saw thought I was like oh this is great Like I was like Yeah it worked out you know Um even when you're confident you're insecure you know it's all you know it's all one big hot mess all the time Look I was confident yesterday What happened But yeah it was fun to do that because my brother had seen my set I was running it for like 100 shows And so my family had seen me in at various times and my brother's like oh you sure do a lot of material about Simone with the sun and the moon And I looked at him and I go would you like me to do some material about you No problem So then I incorporated that show That must be so terrifying to be related to someone that does stand up comedy because it's like you're you're at the crossfire and you're just like just wait for your turn Like I would be terrified I'm sure my siblings are terrified that I talk about them on the show But I don't really but like if you want me to I will and then I can't promise obviously what's going to happen I've made a lot of mistakes doing that like talking about people without their permission Yeah And I think that would be a good piece of advice actually for you to really think about that because uh I definitely like you know if I didn't think it was a big deal for somebody I just assumed they it wasn't a big deal and like some people are really sensitive Can you give us an example Oh God there are so many I mean where I've just kind of told someone the truth that couldn't handle the truth and not in a mean spirited way Like I wanna be honest with you because you're a woman and I want to be honest and loyal to women and I'll always tell you the truth I'm never gonna lie to you and people don't like that and it's abrasive and I I know I own it It is abrasive It's like not welcoming you know you have to watch yourself a little bit more Yeah I mean just be a little bit more mindful just in a nice way like not to be a cunt You know what I mean Like I'm a cunt and I have to sometimes I remember that other people are not like me they are very sensitive to criticism or even like you know and it's an invasion of their privacy My family has no choice I mean they just don't have a choice like they understand I'm not gonna abuse you but I'm gonna call you out I'm never gonna lie I mean they say I lie about everything but they're wrong But I've crossed that line before Of course with my family members and I don't cross that line where it's you know mean spirited I get that OK Fair Your ex directed the special and he did it while you guys were dating then you guys broke up and the special came out How has the breakup affected the way that you feel about your special Oh like sweet You know it's sweet It's like one of my favorite moments of my career and I got to share it with somebody that I was like you know madly in love with It's super sweet It's probably the sweetest thing that I've ever done Like in I'm not a very sweet like you know romantic person I mean I'm you know sweet But why did you guys break up Well I just don't want to really comment on it any further because it turns into a headline and I'm not promoting a break up from six months ago Like you know what I mean I'm here to talk about all the other things I'm doing and I understand people are interested but it's just like it's run it's it's run out of gas I get it I I respect that answer So you're single now I am How is it going That's funny why I have a listen I have I have like um a really enjoyable relationship with myself for the last few years when I've realized like um the importance of actually spending time alone without tons of people around I've actually meaningfully spent time by myself to see what was up with myself Right And I've really genuinely enjoyed getting to know me and I have a lot of respect for that time where you are out of a relationship or right before you're going into a relationship to really be mindful of that time and the space that you have so that you can show up in like a really good way for any relationship you're in and to know when to take a time out A lot of people don't seem to know that it's time to take a break is not so that I feel like that period Everyone has that moment of like oh my God I hung out with myself for so long and I actually for the first time fucking enjoyed it And I got to know myself and I was like oh this isn't this isn't bad Like maybe I don't need to be in a relationship to feel fulfilled I feel like everyone goes through a purity of their time where they're like I'm so comfortable with myself I don't even want anyone unless they're like great to add on to my life Yeah Well I think you have to always set your standards where you want people to meet them Like if you don't have any self respect which so many people seem to suffer from Like you know what do you think you're attracting other people who are gonna disrespect you Like when you think highly of yourself you attract a higher vibe but that's just the way it is And like it's better to have a high vibe Like I've been low vibe I know what that's like And it's infective or like infectious No it's infecting tonight We're infected by the my vocabulary is everything and it's just um it's invective is what I meant to say And I yeah so it's like it's good to just like get to know yourself Like I went to I remember going to Whistler I bought this ski chalet on face time because I was so scared Donald Trump was gonna get reelected And I went to Whistler I got into Canada They were so strict with the quarantine because they wanted they think Americans are disgusting and they don't want us there So I got a work visa I got everything so that I could go to Canada and ski Like all I cared about I flew my dogs and I there we get there we get down we land in Canada and we land I had chartered a private plane but I can't tell this story because this is illegal This is oh it's illegal You can share all of this but I'm not gonna continue this story What happened was illegal Ok And it wasn't because of me the best fuck This is so classic This is so classic You have no idea You know what happened So I get to the airport and this guy is like oh they're turning planes around to Canada I mean in Vancouver you know we could get turned around I go well who who are you And he was like I thought he was a customs agent and he had me on the phone with customs I was talking to them about my work permit I'm like I did everything by the book I hired like an immigration person Like this is gonna get me in What's your problem And the guy was like I don't think we're gonna get in I don't think we're gonna get in and and then finally I realized he was the pilot So I've been listening to this fucking pilot tell me that I had to call this person and this person and show me my paperwork and I go wait what are you You're the pilot Why do you have you have no jurisdiction over what's about to happen right now Just like you're flying the plane let's go And he was like I can't we can't go up there and I go look at me I need to get to Vancouver You're gonna fly this plane to Vancouver and if we get turned around at the border then that's on me And then unfortunately I have to fly all the way back with you So I promise you I am gonna get into fucking Vancouver and then we got there and the customs guys came on the plane and they were like welcome Chelsea We missed you Yeah and you got an easy oh my God Yeah because Canada is awesome and they know that I'm yeah I support them They're they just want to get along with everyone So you left out the illegal part Yeah Ok Good You know what's really interesting is when you said I can't but I really want to tell the story I want to hear it So it's very I'm having a difficult moment right now because it's such a good story But I can we want we want this is what I mean about getting people in trouble You know what I mean I can't do it We're not going to do it when I when you were about to say but like if you want to do it no we don't want to do it You can tell me after um I need something to is this my drink Yeah Yeah Pour your water You know what's interesting Pour your water pour your water in your glass I should have done that Like I was in nursery school for a second pour your water It's interesting when you just said that about like oh I can't tell this story You were saying like I chartered a private jet and you said oh I can't tell this story I thought because you're like a successful woman and I guess we just always get shit on You were gonna say I can't tell it because it's coming off as too like privileged red stick Well I'm not gonna lie I did fly I mean yeah I do chart our private planes Not all the time but yeah I'd love to fly privately all the time and I like the honest I mean I know now we're a little Are you high Very high I'm very stoned I I'm trying to focus and especially with you it's very dangerous territory because you're like you think you can get in there I like I can see what you're doing And I'm like no bitch I saw your face when I asked you about the relationship and immediately your demeanor went from like I'm just out at Alex's house to well then you were like fuck I don't want to talk about this I had to ask I wouldn't be doing that but we're having such a good time Why bring something like that up You know what I mean It's like wait why did the people want to know I have friends Half obviously I'm gonna have to fuck somebody else publicly pretty quickly You get everybody to move on to the next conversation You do Do you have a pattern with a specific field that they're usually in Oh everything I mean I've dated every I have dated the most random people There is no type I've dated Look at the people that I've dated There's no none of them have anything in common and I I look at them all and I'm just like you know what what's the connection and you haven't found it Um No I haven't I don't know What do you think it is I feel like you're very like at the moment you'll maybe you're looking for something and you need it and you go into it with that person and then you leave and you're like I didn't fucking need that and then you meet someone very different You're like maybe this is what I need but you're all you need sweetie Thank you Ok Can you write that down in my notes section Do you have my notes section that you're all you need and then put it in quotes and then right Call her daddy I think that's the worst advice I ever gave Yeah that was that was fucking stupid Ok Let's talk about settling OK Because you're single We all have a friend who is either settled and we're like oh well fuck them That sucks Or they're on the path to settling because they'd rather be in a shitty relationship than no relationship What advice do you give to women who feel like being in a bad relationship is better than being alone Oh I don't know That's really hard for me to even understand I think that's how could you be doing that That's like you don't have any self respect and you could be so much happier Like that's so desperate Yeah It's like they need to they need to get on the path to being comfortable being alone because then you'll see like well just don't settle for anything Like why you don't have to settle for anything you have to raise your game and then everything meets you where you are you you I mean people think about things ending or um like I don't know like break ups and stuff like it's always a good opportunity Everything is a good opportunity the good experiences and the painful ones and if you didn't have painful experiences you'd be really fucking boring The only real difference is now everyone shares every experience you know so that used to be different Like most people wouldn't be like talking like I talk and be open but I've always been open because I'm not trying to hide anything You know if I'm doing like I talk about whatever what's going on with me If I'm into therapy I talk about that If I'm into drugs I talk about that If I've to rappers I talk about that you know like I'm not there's no mystique like I'm not trying to like keep anything away You should go back to some rappers I know I'm in there for a good rapper That would be fun you know Oh let's line it up You are due for a good rapper I mean fifties is like iconic So I feel like the only person I could top him is like Lil Wayne you see that happening Me and Lil Wayne That's funny Or what about like I don't know Yeah What am I in the I think I need to go somewhere I haven't been before Where haven't you in adventure You know Have you ever dated a doctor Uh no but I would love that Yeah I would love that for you Thank you What about the pilot Was he single You you think I was interested in him after the way he behaved at the airport But you know when sometimes you fight and then you realize that not like that I'm not trying to fight You weren't the girl picking on the kids in like class the cute guy I want to know about your relationship with your boyfriend Yeah I do Who's interviewing you I'm interviewing you What's the dynamic there Because I have to tell you something When I saw you at the event I was surprised to see that you had a long term boyfriend Like I kind of judged you in a way not not in a bad way I just judged you as the type of person that wouldn't be in a long term relationship I don't know Get to the now asking myself that very question because I was I was like oh yeah I mean what does he do He produces movies and he knew your friend uh as who gave us the mushrooms We were in a really nice gala and Chelsea and her friend were indulging and offered my boyfriend and I some chocolate mushrooms which I highly recommend for any gala I I really love that for you because I was like oh like I've never done mushrooms I've never done mushrooms Really I was like I don't feel like am it's the first place And Chelsea's like oh I'm going and I didn't even know you were fucking hosting She was going up and like she was like giving a full speech two seconds later after I see she's on fucking mushrooms Chelsea's on stage at a being like hello everyone I'm like I would be in a fucking hole cradling myself I gotta try mushroom Yeah I know Well you're pretty amped up to begin with So I don't know Yeah Maybe because you would be like you wouldn't be able to shut the fuck up on mushroom Yeah I would hate myself Well also I'm having to interview you when I'm high Usually silent But I'm having to like really I'm forcing myself to don't you think it's more fun to be high and social I mean I love to be high alone too but I like being high and social I don't know I think I'm really more of a high alone more What do you do Like do you play games or something or Like are you playing Fortnite I'm playing my Xbox and drinking my boyfriend on are you on a on Atari or do you play Atari What the fuck is that No I'm by myself watching like a movie like a normal Yeah that's I mean that's me every night Maybe if I ever do mushrooms I'd do it with you No then you'd probably never be my friend No No let's not do that Ok Ok Moving on Why do you think you're so normal Because I like normal It's more interesting I think normal is very interesting because nobody's really normal I mean nobody's really boring Everybody has something going you know I mean some people are really annoying and so it's hard to figure out what that something is or you know you don't have the patience to even deal with finding out But everybody has something to say and like people's past and their childhoods like I find everybody to be pretty interesting I like I I could talk to anyone and just interview them all day long I just saying I do like that about you that I feel like you're like somehow living a seemingly normal life and like you're pretty fucking famous Well I mean I'm flying privately with my dogs to to Canada to a house I bought on facetime And so like obviously it's not that normal I like to have things outside of just my professional career Uh It's taken over a lot of my life for a lot of many years and I really needed a time out also to be like by myself and now I'm ready to rumble again Like and and when I'm in the mood to work then everything works It's easy you know So I had to really arrive at a moment where I got it back and I'm hungry and I have ambition because for a couple of years I really did not give a shit I was like I'm just gonna go to Spain and hang out at my you know other house Fuck you that we have to edit out that we have got to edit out Fuck No Do you know how that goes back to what I was saying Like oh the private plane do you know how few people are have self Like you're self made you've come up you've made it on your own self made My father was a used car dealer What are you talking about No Like you're goddamn So do you know what I mean Like I think you have the right to I'm I'm kind of sick of people being pissed when people I don't still lie or pretend you're not whatever I'm not playing a game you know I'm not gonna even say anybody's name that I could think of some wealthy millionaire No I just have a really nice life I'm not like a you know and you're not gonna hide it No And I and I'm in love with Elon Musk Ok Let's talk about that That's the that's the most fun thing that's happened That's your next man Can't stand Elon Musk That's your next guy Would you ever go on a date with that man No When when does this come out February 1st Ok So I I'm about to host the daily show I'll be about to host the daily show I I specifically asked the ep of the daily show if we could roast Elon Musk physically I'm like he is such an asshole that we were allowed to actually let go after like looks because because he's so like repugnant of a person You know what I mean And what they say No no they they were like let's go for it Oh That's nice Um OK This will be fun for you while we're high I think that it's fine We're we're moving offices Alec would you mind grabbing me some lip balm I feel like I'm about to swallow my tongue That's why I was I think I've now been just talking to you like this I like the way that you twitch around while you're talking You're like I can't like start talking I don't know if you're mimicking what I'm saying Are you saying that Yeah you have a tick Do you want I'm trying to get cozy these chairs when I'm wearing by the way This is a great move at all This is a great episode This is great We're flowing It's awesome We're vibing Yeah we're gonna have to do this once a year once a year So listen to this on your show We did like let's answer some questions I figured I could give you some topics and I want to hear your take on them That's fun Right I mean we'll see Ok what is your take on posting your significant other on social media No I I like doing that I've never done that before So that was fun for me It was funny Like I knew how annoying it was but like I I liked it It was it because I've never been public like that and I felt that way and you know Yeah So why not It was kind of cute It was like very um unexpected Well and it's also sincere because I'm not you know full of shit I mean if I'm doing that I mean it what do you think about when people get nervous that their partner won't post them on social media Like uh that's annoying Anything that you're arguing about with social media is annoying and statement Absolutely Put that in my notes Chelsea handler anything you talk about And then what was the other part we came up with earlier You only know what you can do It was like you you only know what you can do I said you only know No I said you only you're all you need you're all you need That's the title of this You're all you need You need I didn't say sweetie and you get nervous when people come over to your house and you have to interview them for beside aside from me like are you Um No I don't know why I don't know what's wrong with me but nothing in me gets like nervous I get the only nerve I get is to make sure that I do a good job and I give my audience like an entertaining episode Obviously if I'm having to talk about some serious shit I actually like get off on that I'm like let's go like my breakup Yeah So why the fuck did you You were like please stop Uh Yeah I was excited but then I'm swerving Right I'm being respectful Yeah Right Yeah But like if you want to give undertones what the fuck is going on over there Yeah Oh my God I'm like are you what's happening Oh Yeah that looks nice That's a nice color What is that I don't know I don't think you just ate it I did I swallowed it ok Your taste How you put lipstick on You didn't know that that you just put in your mouth and swallowed it OK What are your thoughts on reigniting friendships with people you've had a fall out with Oh That's a good one for me because I have a lot of friendship endings and like yeah I always go from pe people like I go from group to group to group and II I do that a lot Um reigniting Yeah with the right people for sure Yeah because you know you do grow up and like whatever you thought about or disagreed about you know you some mostly forget about and then you're just like hanging on to the energy So I definitely believe in reignite recognition Do you see I mean I every time I say II I every time I say miss if I stop it every time I miss say a word I look into the camera it's been like multiple times I know and it's so not me because I'm so like vocabulary Like I read everything and I care about fucking words Try to convince us now but it's not I'm really smart You guys we can tell um why do you think you're bopping from friend group to friend group What does that mean Oh I mean I've done that my whole life I've been multiple friends groups not friend group to friend group just having relationships end got it you know and not being don't I don't think that's a bad that's such a bad thing either You know like people move on people grow apart Some people grow grow back together But I I don't think French uh like I I think it's an evolution Everyone has their own evolution and if you're not on the right kind of frequency you're not I don't know I just think people have like fantasies and like they're romantic You know what I mean When you people want to see something play out Yeah I think and people are really you know one of the cutest things was like people would come up to me like screaming at us on the street like oh my God you've renewed our like my faith and like love and I believe I'll be in love now and I believe that everyone has a person I was like I believe it too I mean if I fell in love like that like I'm I I mean then anybody can do you think you can fall in love like that again Now that I'm open I'm like I'm in bloom I'm just like Elon Musk with yeah I'm having Elon Musk's baby So I'm actually having triplets What is your take on when people post crying videos on the internet Well I mean I think when it first started happening it was interesting but now it's like too much I don't like the internet I'm scared of I'm like I just don't I just it feels like it's a black mirror You know I just feel like we're living through black mirror and at any moment the world is going to implode because people are just fucking crazy Everyone's crazy everyone's hooked up to a device things people aren't normal after the pandemic It's just the the world's on fire I mean II I don't mean to be a Debbie Downer but we are about to blow up It's not looking good It's not great Better to be in a good mood about it I guess Right Like go down in fear Write down don't live in fear and write down go down smiling Yeah right below Don't live in fear Ok We should come out with our own dictionary of phrases The quotes that we're spewing this episode are gonna be really hard for me to come back from football Uh I know I'm not into it I I'm not into football I wrote these being like we're gonna be this is like the upper section No I was saying I was writing the take on like it was going to be an upper section where like we're in black mirror we're literally going to die Everything is falling apart Well that's a real fun topic by the way So thanks for bringing that up I'm trying to dry January Yeah Seriously You want to talk about Harvey Weinstein next I mean why not Just fucking um Dude are you doing Dr January Try January No I'm not drinking because I'm hosting the Critics Choice Awards But this will air after that Wait what why aren't you drinking before that Just just so I look great Yeah it's more for the looks Not for the feel Yeah I tried it I lasted four days then my boyfriend and I the other night I was like have a fucking drink It's so fun To drink don't overdo it So you don't ever have to give it away you know just don't ever overdo it So you don't have to stop doing it One of my boyfriends once said that to me that's a great bit of advice I'll keep that one What is your opinion on adults who go to Disney World with their partner and like they don't have kids So definitely against it That's so stupid I don't understand when I was insulted as a child going to Disney World I was like six years old and I was like oh really I'm supposed to believe that there's a bunch of grown mice running around trying to take photos with us that are also in a good mood Fuck you I'm like I thought Disneyland was a sham when I was six years old I went off on my father I was like I don't want to come back to this place I'm like it's a joke I'm like this is like Valentine's Day I mean I couldn't believe and they don't have alcohol there Even at six I was looking for a cocktail I was like I can't survive this place without a drink I love this answer Also my next question is gonna be your take on Valentine's Day I think we covered that 10 my God you can't ask that Be asking that question to people What what do you think about Valentine's Day Many people love it You can't be asking that question What if I was sitting here How about this What if I was like oh wow Chelsea Like I really like Disney World and I also really like Valentine's Day I wouldn't give a shit You would just be like yeah it fucking sucks Yeah Stop talking about it please I don't it's like people talk about birding man I don't like to hear about that either Oh my God Do you ever go to Coachella Um I went once but I wasn't there I just was with the A's off So I was like backstage I didn't go another relatable moment Yeah I feel like that just is awful Burning me Have you ever been to burning me No No I'm not down with that I don't want a sand blowing in my face while I'm not tripping on whatever drug I'm on I want a sand You have to wear like a gas mask and it's so ridiculous I mean if people show me pictures and I just it it just seems like some place you go to have an affair right And then like have communal living or something that's what I can't relate Um OK when I was bringing have you ever been a birding man Absolutely not Things like that concert like that whatever that is That's not a concert I'm terrified of concerts I can't I just don't want to do it Yeah I feel I mean I'm not terrified but I prefer not to go I guess terrified was a little aggressive I just would prefer not I want an assigned seat What would you what would you feel if you saw someone get proposed to in the middle of Disney world I do I love that After I tell you that I will never go to Disneyland World You ask me the next question is when I'm there what I'll do if someone has proposed to I like proposals I think that's sweet I like yeah I do I think that's sweet Like I mean in Disneyland obviously that's ridiculous But whatever I don't care enough about any of it Would you be upset if someone proposed to you at Disney World Well nobody would do that Right Because I wouldn't even go No I wouldn't go I wouldn't go They're trying to propose they're trying to propose to me but I refused to go to Disneyland so they can't propose Oh my God So you're ok with public proposals Well not for me I mean I don't want that but they can have it But yeah if you want a lot of people like that stuff really Yeah Yeah The same girls that want to talk about Valentine's Day want to get publicly proposed to Well not everyone wants publicly but like I mean not everyone but most women want to be proposed to Oh yeah Yeah Yeah I just mean like in public Right Like at a supporting event I would say No no Even if they were the love of my life No No definitely not Yeah Absolutely not How do you feel about shower sacks Oh no not into it Me either Last time I did I got a yeast infection Yeast infections are the worst Ok What do you think about nepotism babies I I couldn't give a shit about that Everyone is so bored Like obviously if your parents are both actors you're probably going to be an actor It's so stupid It pisses me off so much It's like why do you care in every industry that like anyone with Yeah Sorry I interrupted you No no I interrupted you I wanted you to keep going You're being funny or I don't have much I mean it's just ridiculous Like obviously you know if your parents are both fucking rappers you're probably going to be a rapper I mean it's just unbelievable that people are so bored and that that this is a topic of conversation It's so lame I agree Like when you and Elon have Children it's not our first baby is gonna be called Elton OK Elon and Chelsea with little Elton obviously Elton is gonna be swinging the big black platinum card Yeah Well by then we won't even use credit cards Elon will First of all it's gonna be a late it's gonna be a middle to middle life to pregnancy because I'm 47 So the baby might take a little bit longer to cook So let's give it like a three year window I'm not really good at cooking anyway So I'm sure mine will be a little bit off I think scientifically that just actually made actually quite a lot of sense What my question is is this why believe anything we're saying makes sense I don't think any I don't know even what I'm saying I think nepotism babies You're so right What do we want them to do I've been seeing a right Right Literally What are your thoughts on kids sitting in first class if they're not annoying that's fine But parents paying for their kids to fly first Yeah I mean I would put my kids in coach me too Middle seat motherfucker I'd say I'd say that now but maybe I wouldn't they're gonna be flying on the PJ Yeah Yeah They're just not coming they're not coming They'll send them to Disneyland Yeah they go to Disneyland every every other weekend How do you what kind of traveler are you like Are you an anxious traveler Like when you're at the airport Like what's happening I'm no I'm not I'm not anxious

You're not not at all Traveling is a relaxing Actually I love it I like being on planes I mean you know I don't like being going to the airport but I like being on planes and I like reading I read lots of books when I'm on planes I never can get on the wifi so I don't have to worry about being involved in any of that So I'm like away for four hours and I like either watch something or I read it like the other day I was flying somewhere in Philadelphia to Vancouver and I read an entire book this book called The Great Alone by Kristen Hannah And it's like 600 pages and I read it in one flight and I was like fuck yeah And then I read another book the next day because I was like oh yeah I want to read another book because you forget how great reading is Like it's just it's so good to be lost in a book that has nothing to do with anything you'll ever experience in your entire life And you get smart every time you read a book you get smarter like you understand another world or you have a glimmer into that back to airport Sorry I'm swerving back What is the biggest sin someone can commit on an air I have a barefoot on their a bare feet It's disgusting and it should be illegal And I want to make a video for all airlines because it's like it's not fair People my D MS are filled with bare feet on planes People send them to me like 30 people a day send me a barefoot on a plane or in an airport or on a train or on a bus one flight attendant DM me and told me that a guy brought muscles onto a plane and he had the shells and he put them in a plastic bag He was eating Mussels on a plane next to a person Like there are rules that need to be said out loud And I found out Catherine you met her She's my co-host on my podcast here Chelsea Catherine who I love would until she revealed that she travels to the airport with a dozen hard boiled eggs in a Ziploc bag I almost stabbed myself in the vagina I could not believe her And I looked at her and then I looked at her husband and said what do you have to say for yourself She's with you and you didn't say anything about this He's like she loves eggs And I was like hey guys you can't do that ever again You can't bring 10 12 egg You can't have any hard boiled eggs when you get on the plane eat them If you like them so much you can't bring those on a plane And she was someone who would also have seen someone with a barefoot and been like gross So does she still work with you Yeah she still works with me but it's it caused a chasm and it hasn't been the same since Well I just have to keep an eye on her now because I don't know what other shenanigans she's up to that she thinks is cool I think that's a cardinal sin It's pretty Yeah Try to say the word Go ahead I can't I can't say it I can't we're gonna say volatile No no no it was a V no And it wasn't vagina No No not Yeah Well there are other words

besides volatile and vagina that start with a V Virginia Ok Listen up I need to recalibrate my brain Um how about this Ready for this one you're known for being very honest What's the hardest thing you've had to tell someone Oh God all the time But like a hard one where you actually struggled a little bit like clenched and then released before just releasing I mean nothing that made me like clench It's never that hard I mean there have been harder ones but nothing where I things I've put off that I was like I'd rather hope that this disappears So I don't have to address this Like and does and it does it usually include you or are you just like a bystander witnessing for like a friend or a family member Both both Uh Yeah if it's about someone else I have tend to be a little bit more hot Really about the defense of that person Yeah As opposed to it being about you Yeah Like I'll put up with a little bit more than I'll let my friends put up with I think oh maybe we'll be friends one day I need someone to stop threatening our friendship You know what You've been like this I'm saying I want you to be like we are friends We are Well yeah we're friends now I just wanted you to say it but stop fucking threatening it It's so annoying I want you to defend now We're in a friendship I can flow I get all nervous It's exciting Ok Listen to this one I'm just saying that to this whole time because I can't I was with Jennifer Hudson at the talk show and she was like they had the blue cards right behind my shoulder and it was so funny because I remember it reminded me of doing a talk show like I did Jay Leno the first time and he was like talking to me like I was that lamp behind you and he's like yeah So what did you do for this summer break And you're like hello At least I'll make it eye contact Right Yeah Yeah Well people are much better interviewers but yeah but back in the day hi Chelsea how are you doing You're like I'm over here What personality type compliments yours The best strong and confident Good answer What's an insecurity you've dealt with someone Checking my phone Can I tell you a fucking story Hm Yeah Ok When we were doing your podcast I we remember we got asked a question and there was a girl being like I went through his phone he's got prostitutes and it was a big story But your answer immediately I like noted it that you were like very adamant which of course it's not good to look at someone's phone But you were like I could tell there was something personal about how you were like don't fucking check his phone I also wanted to be like like let's ease up but a little bit like you ever check I was like is this something personal going on And I could tell someone had checked your fucking phone because the way that you answered I could tell it was coming from personal experience that it's a huge violation of privacy and you were frustrated about it And I've also checked someone's phone I've been that person when I was younger and I've done that and that is no way to behave It is not dignified and you're gonna find whatever it is you're looking for Yeah Did did did you find out the person check your phone or did they tell you it was revealed to me because they have something to confront you about Yes Isn't that interesting though Because that dynamic I've done it also I've checked someone something but it's so interesting because who's in the right though Because it's like no no it's almost like no one would whatever you're bringing up because you checked my fucking phone right Right Right Right Right So anything you're saying I could have fucked Elon yesterday it doesn't matter No But also if you're looking you're going to misinterpret almost every everything and think I mean I know I did that I had a boyfriend where I was so he was cheating on me by the way and I found plenty of text messages just to confirm it Like I that's my own problem You know what I mean I should never be in a situation where I have to look at someone's phone My friend was joking yesterday and she said I look she was looked through her daughter's phone She goes I have to read her phone every night after she goes to bed and I go oh my God But as a mother I totally get it But as like a lover it's really pathetic Well yeah because do you think you were giving vibes No No I was up to nothing Ever Never I don't have the personality to be a liar or a cheater I don't have the I barely have the energy to be in one relationship I am very into being alone as we've discussed So it's very hard for me to even give that up You know what I mean But I tried and that was a good example I'll do it again you know But um I don't remember what I was even talking about Yeah Yeah Write that down You're doing great Doing great sweetie I think that's a Chris Jenner line So don't quote me on that Ok By the way those Christian did Chris Jenner send you that pajama her pajama set Well you need to get yourself on that list Yeah she sent me this silk pillow It's like the softest thing I've ever slept on in a good word for me Now that you know we're like she's a nice girl Ok Well I just forwarded her a video of somebody doing an impersonation of her on Instagram So she's it was this girl Anna Rosman She's really funny Oh my God By the way we call her daddy girls Nice All right Yeah I'll definitely mention that the next time I bump into Chris Jenner What is it Irrational fear you have uh that everyone hates me Really Yeah I can get like that where I think the whole like like oh everyone thinks I'm bad or not or too difficult or whatever I can confirm that Oh that's really very sweet of you But you know while everyone's listening I want people to know that those thoughts that you have about yourself are like they happen to all of us and we all have moments of insecurity no matter how confident you may think I am listening to this or that or you are or whatever whoever in your life you would look up to and admire Know that like you know that we all have that voice in our head that tells us we're not as good we're not da da da And then the other voice is the real voice is like when you know you're are valuable and that you're lovable and that you bring something to the table that nobody else brings like listen to that voice That was really wise Chelsea Oh really Love it You think about it I thought that was very yeah it's relatable to every single person listening Oh yeah Good Um this was pretty fun I know So our top out of the two times we've hung out now This is my favorite time 03 times We saw each other at the thing So that's like you know but this is my favorite time So we'll do this every year I'll come every year Yeah Oh yeah definitely You should be getting high all the time Anyway What's next for you Um in the next minute Not like right now I know you're driving home in the I'm gonna host the the oh I'm gonna host the Daily Show for a week Yeah I am I am I'm thinking that I would I'm really interested in uh getting back into the late night game and that is the perfect vehicle for me And if everything goes the way that I think it's gonna go you know that might be a more serious conversation I can speak for everyone We would love to see you on television Yeah And I'm in the mood Well if she's in the fucking mood it's gonna happen Chelsea Handler Thank you so much for coming and call her daddy Oh my God Call her daddy dude That was fucking great It was that was really good
