

With Backstabbing Bitch

This morning I'm so sorry I'm like meeting like this Oh my God you didn't have to I'm so sorry Do you want to like talk about it Are you fine to talk about it or No Yeah I'm fine Um I don't know Oh my God Have you ever have you seen all this shit that's going on OK I like started to try to pay attention when I like I saw your like so sort of your side and I was like I felt really bad for you because you're 18 years old and I was like when I was doing this shit I would be like if I post if I had your platform at 18 I would be canceled in two seconds Like the shit I was doing in college and I'm like you guys have it so rough as much as people like tiktok or so I've been doing it in sixth grade What you have I'd be a senior in high school right now but I graduated early Ok I have so OK so you so there's more drama Yeah I found out this morning that Jaden likes So yeah go me He told me over text and I have the text so he can't deny it Yeah I'm not laughing I'm like no you're fine I'm laughing What a fucking piece of shit Nobody knows the whole story And I get my point like I made myself look fucking crazy as shit for posting that ticket Did you mad But she was mad I had every right to fucking post that and yeah I was mad My intentions weren't to her Josh my intentions weren't to her Jane My intentions were to show that like fuck you out Honestly she used to be my best friend came together I talk about it I don't care I told I wouldn't talk about it on and here we fucking go fuck you Josh Do you Like Josh Josh is one of my best friends I've known Josh for like three years now Um He was my best friend He's known me even in my past relationships Um and he was like my best friend and he hates me ok It's gonna be OK Thank you I'm here Don't worry we'll talk about that ok That's fine Um OK this is I I already I'm like emotional for you right now because I have been there where you find out that your boyfriend I mean just think about it like she's my best friend and I don't give a fuck if she's not my friend anymore Like I wish her the best but it's like you were my best friend and I know like we can't start recording ok Ok let's start recording Um I first I was gonna ask you like how the fuck you got into social media Like all this shit the whole fucking story Yeah because I'm like you are so young and I think like I wanted to have you on because I'm like I feel like so many people are like oh my God tiktokers are so fucking stupid They're embarrassing They have no talent And I'm like I understand what you're trying to get that But I also have to say like if I was fucking 18 right now and we had the platform that you have It's not like college when I would post it in college It's like OK

OK my friends can get pissed at me and then you like discuss it in the dining hall You're like oh and 11.6 million people are following you How did you get into social media I got into social media Well first off I downloaded Instagram when I was in fifth grade Um So that was like eight years ago nine years ago and I I just did it for fun whatever And then my friend in sixth grade showed me this app called Musically which is what tiktok was before It was like you know tiktok and I did it for fun and it was an app where you just lip sync and just like you know live your best life like no one judged you at all Like social media was so fun back then Honestly I just don't think it's fun anymore Um But so yeah I started on musically and then um my phone was vibrating I started on musically and I was getting featured and featured as like this little red box that goes on your videos and it like shows like the app shows you like oh they like your content and it was called the featured page instead of the for you page which for me is so crazy because I've seen this app like evolve and transform what it is now And then so I kind of blew up on there There's a thing called Crown which is verified got verified on there at like 5000 followers like really like not that many followers at all And then you know I just I just did you know just have fun and then I started to blow up and then I got a million followers 2 million 3 million I got 3 million followers And then I stopped doing it because it changed to tiktok I went to that party 23 years ago I think it was three years ago in November when that party was like transforming from musically to tiktok They were like and tiktok is here and me and my friends were like you know like baby Arielle Zach Clay and Jacob S Arturia Lauren Gray We were all like that's stupid Like we had our time The app is kind of childish now We're growing up Let's just pursue our dreams and acting singing dancing modeling everything because you know we believed in ourselves And then we were like you know what there's a new wave of people that we could be friends with you know being on social media is really hard and like making friends with people and because people judge you for like lip syncing and stuff like that And you know a lot of people in my hometown didn't believe in me and believing in me and a lot of people related that like people doing social media I'm sure you hometown people were like what are you doing Yeah fuck off Right And so we were like OK let's do it And we all just did Tik Tok and we realized wait it's actually kind of fun It's not toxic I mean it's the same thing just a different name And we were like you know what Let's do it And you can kind of tell we are mus because we did like our videos in fast motion And so we kind of transformed it into a Tik talker and then I was still verified on there because I was like you verified on musically And then now I have 11 million followers on there which is insane I love my supporters so much I always call them supporters because I feel like they're family to me and I love them and I wish them the best honestly Um And then I did youtube uh after I did musically and I used to get a lot of views on there I just stopped doing it because it was really draining mentally draining you know filming your videos editing your videos and just it's like you have to like film your life you know what you know what I mean So I actually started saying this quote just remember you're beautiful which is a ryb which is my merch comes in I use the symbol of a butterfly because for me a butterfly is like a butterfly can't see how pretty it is And that butterfly is one of the most beautiful insects ever Their wings are so vibrant so bright and they can't see that And so I always resemble myself as a butterfly because it matters what's on the inside not what you can actually see on the outside because in my opinion I don't think anyone's like beautiful unless your soul is beautiful and I'm not like degrading people's looks I'm just no I totally get it I see that Yeah I I love that you do that It's like really dope that you're like always posting that always hash tagging that I think like a lot of women obviously and girls like resonate with that Yeah No of course And even guys like I mean I have a lot of guys supporters who say like you know I know this like beautiful is a very girly word but I think it helps a lot because I just want people to feel loved and know that I I'm not trying to force any like Christian or Catholic or anything like that on to people or like Godly things But I'm a Christian and I think that if you believe in that God thinks he'll do the best things you'll do the best things if you just believe in yourself and believe in Him and that you're loved whether you're loved by a lot of people you're loved by him And so I want to spread that as I love them too So then you get 11.6 million followers and everyone's like everyone has an opinion on your life Everybody do you do you like wish you weren't in the spotlight or do you actually No for me I take it as a learning point in my life of like people are going to say what they're going to say That's why I say let the hate build your beauty because instead of letting someone's hate comment make you feel bad about yourself make you feel good about yourself because they're going out of their way to comment on your post You have no idea who they are If you're gonna if you're gonna to be honest I have no idea who you are but you're commenting this rude comment of how I look ugly in this photo but you still went out of your way to comment that So I just let that build me up instead of bringing me down I think that's really smart But I also think like you are in a way relatable to like there are girls in high school and college right now that don't have as many followers in you But they also get so much hate like girls are joking because that girl posted a selfie and she didn't look as cute and then her friends are talking shit behind her back And it's like do you have have you had like a mental moment to have to like block off that you could share with anyone like it literally how do you get through that Because you get it on a grand fucking honestly everyone that does social media that's your fault for putting your life on social media in general You can't blame any of your supporters for being like well you do you're talking about this stop talking about this You have to admit that you bought it on the social media and then take a step back and like think about what you just did because you put it out there And so I've cried on social media before I've gone live before and just told them that my mental health is awful and then I just need a break and you know my whole thing is to help those people who go through that and I can't help them if I'm not help myself Just like I say if you're not happy you can't make someone else happy Because if you're not happy you're making them feel better in the wrong way I when you say though I had seen you posted something like it was like months ago maybe a month or so ago And you're like hey guys I'm taking a break from social media like my mental health what do you mean by your mental health Like is it your are you going through it because you're going through it because of social media Like is it the hate comments Is it not even that I mean whether it's social media that's making you feel bad about yourself or just your life in general life situations things that are happening behind the camera there's a lot of things behind the camera that people don't know your supporters don't know at all and sometimes you don't want to tell them you don't have to And so my point of not being on social media and me being not on there when I met break I didn't mean for a month I didn't mean for a year a week I literally just meant for however long I wanted and that was two days That's all I needed to just regroup Go back to God lean on God instead of just leaning on the people that don't actually even know me Are you close with your family Yeah I really I am I talk to them all the time every week And aren't you a triplet that's fucking which are so you have is it two Is it boy a girl and a boy I was last born So there's a B and C my sisters born first her name is and then my brother named Dakota and then me yeah we're all born on Christmas Eve too What the fuck we are you guys Is it true Like the all the twin shit I hear of like you guys have like telepathy like is it true sometimes It's true I mean like we'll say certain things and then we'll be like oh my gosh no way you were thinking that And then I mean some of these guys I mean it's a cool thing It happens sometimes but we're not identical We're fraternal and I kind of feel like that affects it in a way I might just I might sound stupid I don't even know what I'm saying If you walk in the room you look identical people like holy fucking shit Whereas a lot of people wouldn't even know if you and you really have to know them to tell them apart Do they live in L A My sister does she lives with one of my friends Indiana and my brother still lives at home in semi and you are moving into a house with a bunch of girls Yes I actually already did Yeah I live in a just a house in L A Literally the most open minded sweet heart of girls I've ever met in my entire life Do you think that that though You have to be careful because you see how quick shit changes No not at all These girls are different Like when I say different I'm not just hyping them up like they are different They have my back I have their back like I just love them so much They're really sweet Ok So you are going through a public breakup and I feel I literally felt so bad you walking crying saying I'm like holy fuck you didn't need to come So thank you for coming Um Can you kind of explain the situation to anyone that does OK So sorry right now if I cry but I just want to say a big apology to Josh Um It's gonna make me cry I fucking love Josh so fucking much He's literally like one of my best friends I've known him for three years now almost Um I went on tour with him Um And I just I got to know him throughout the three years and I saw how much he really loved Nessa and he saw how much I really love you know Jaden and stuff like that and the fact that he called me crazy Um I don't fucking blame him at all Um Because I did release that video of that edit and I never realized when me posting that I'd be hurting Josh But I was because that is literally his ex-girlfriend So I'm an idiot for posting it Um I feel like I had every right to post it because I was mad and it was my feelings but I honestly didn't have to post on social media and I did So I just want to say sorry to Josh I think he'll respect that a lot But when you posted it I think any girl can relate Like when you think that your boyfriend is being fucking cheating on you or cheating on you whatever the fuck like I'm sorry but your eyes just glaze over and you're going to get mad lose you lose self control and you're like oh my gosh I'm so mad and then you make stupid decisions But then if people are like ok but like she should know better because she has a platform I don't think so If I was fucking 18 I'm posting that video Are you fucking whether I have a platform or not I built that platform because I wanted that platform because I love all my supporters and I want them to feel loved That is that is what I want So me posting that is my decision That's your story doesn't matter if I have followers or not If you didn't have followers and you did have followers you would still post it Can you post it Even if I had 1000 votes That exactly I think any girl would have posted 1000 or 1.6 million Why did you how did you post it What made you think that you are your friend was cheating on you with your boyfriend So I'm not going to go in full detail but I'm literally just going to say the exact truth I don't care if anyone thinks I'm crazy after this because I know I'm not crazy Um I know my girls are like thank you Um ok so I broke my phone this morning Ok Not not this morning but you know I broke my phone one morning and Jaden was going to Laguna with Nessa uh Cooper Quintin their manager and Ness's manager Brie and they were going they've had a black plan for like a week now and he went and I was like ok I don't care go with your friends go for it because they're Cooper Quinn and Ja all live together now and I was like go for it Cooper's mom wants to celebrate them like her son moving out and she wants to make dinner for them to do it go for it They they went ok I broke my phone that morning Something happened I broke my phone and he gave me his phone Ok like my own boyfriend gave me his phone because he did it for a safety reason Oh my gosh I'm leaving My girlfriend doesn't have a phone Let me give her mine He comes back into the house after he left 10 minutes later and is like give me my phone and I was like why And he was like my manager I'm not gonna say her name My manager thinks that you convinced me to give me you me to give me your phone because like you broke yours that's your fault you broke it So now his manager convinced him that he was wrong for just giving you his phone for a safety reason ok And I was like ok fine He has an ipad right Oh Fuck So he gave me his ipad ok But before he gave me his phone he deleted a message on his phone because I saw it you know when you see someone and they're like this and they go like that and it's like I saw that motion and I'm like maybe I'm just crazy maybe I'm just crazy And I was like did you delete something off your phone when you before he handed it to me And he goes no I swear to God He swore to God I swear to God No I didn't But if I know better it's gonna be on the fucking idiot ok So I have his ipad I did not think anything of it Go through his ipad Nothing I was like no it's his privacy I'm not going to go through it I didn't go through his phone when I had it I didn't go through his ipad later that night He hasn't answered me at all the whole day Usually I I was at a darty which is a day party They're swimming I was in a swimsuit He's always very very protective not jealousy He was very protective He was very like hey um

he would always be like hey are you OK I just want to make sure ok nothing Literally not one thing six hours later went by and which is fine I'm not crazy I'm not trying to get you know the pattern I said hey I just want to make sure you Ok that I said all this other stuff six hours later went by and he said uh how are you messaging him through his ipad So me him No actually I went and got a new phone I got a new phone for to include that I got a new phone So I had all that information and I was like you have his ID I have his ID and I was like ok I got my new phone I'm going to leave his ipad whatever So I wasn't looking at his ipad at all get on my phone Hey I got my new phone Just want to let you know hope you're having a great time also like why the fuck aren't you texting me What's going on I didn't text me six hours later texted me and then I was like whatever it's I didn't think anything of it And then in a couple of hours more went by and I had this gut feeling and I was like no why am I getting this feeling Why do I every time I think of Ness and Jaden why do I have this feeling I mean it's not weird that she's there I mean that's Cooper's best friend and like whatever I mean SAB is Cooper's girlfriend Um didn't think anything of it I was like no no it's just them it's fine it's whatever And then I got this gut feeling So I went on his ipad and I was like no I'm snooping I can't do that Had a gut feeling did it anyway I went on his text messages with his manager because Nea's name didn't pop up and went on the text with his manager and there's a text from him that says I'm coming to Laguna and then there's voice recordings from him and then he says delete those don't save them she doesn't save them Then she sends two voice recordings of her saying I'm so glad you're coming That makes me so happy The feelings are mutual between you and Nessa You just have to make sure you're not with Mads I'm so glad Mads isn't coming Um you just have to break up with her Um Hopefully this time you'll have another moment meaning him and Nessa and that hopefully you guys can pursue what you already started So in my mind my heart's racing hella fucking fast My blood is boiling You know as a girl that is my boyfriend I'm like and you press play on these voices and I'm such an idiot that I didn't screen record these but I swear on my life they are real And I have a text with Jaden that says about the voice recordings and he says yeah I'll tell Josh that there's voice recordings because they're real I know ok Wait were you fucking nervous that um if you listen to it don't they like disappear So what if they disappear after 24 hours as I was reading them and listening to them they were disappearing disappearing ok I'm literally shaking right now Also it's fucked because you're right now It brings in Josh where it's like right now in my mind in my mind I'm like holy fuck Josh Josh And at that point Nessa and Josh were already broken up and Josh broke up like two weeks before But it doesn't matter because Josh's best friend Yeah there's loyalty though That supposed to be So anyways I'm literally shaking Ok So I see the voice recordings are disappearing I call Jaden doesn't answer me called him literally I don't give a fuck if anyone calls me crazy Called him 20 times I would call him 20 times and he doesn't answer I text Cooper and I'm like tell Jane to answer me right now And he said ok calls me back and I said you have one chance to tell me the fucking truth I was like I just want the truth Jaden He said OK he was like I don't like you anymore And he told me he doesn't like me anymore which I believe him I didn't like him either at that point And not even after I saw that I was kind of losing feelings for like a week now Same with him because we just weren't happy We weren't healthy and we weren't making each other happy Like I said you can't make another person happy if you're not happy yourself So it was like a God thing It was kind of like ok we jumped into our relationship too quick of trying to make each other happy and it didn't work but you don't go cheat on someone go behind their back like bit cleanly And so that was why we broke up Not because of Nessa and not because of anything that was happening Not because he went to Laguna just we weren't happy and we should have broken up two weeks ago But we didn't love the kid I wish him the absolute fucking best No he did not cheat on me He did not get with Nessa that's what he said That's something going to believe he did not get with her at all He said he would never do that to Josh Ok He would never do that to Josh I love how he doesn't say he wouldn't do it to you Yeah Whatever Ok Um anyways where even was I Ok So you finally find this out You listen to yes you told me that we break up we talked for like an hour just crying on the phone Whatever is this then you go and release the video Then the next day we have a really great conversation Me and Jay we talk we apologize Everything's fine Left on a great note You know what he told me the night before First thing he said was don't tell Josh and I'm like why if you didn't do anything wrong Josh has every right to know those voice recordings and and their manager and Ness's intentions because obviously their intentions were to get Jaden to like Nessa to be with Nessa but to break up a I think it was for clout I I think they're brainwashing him and wanting to be together because it looks good on the show I just want to say screw every person who says I'm jealous of the song That song is so good I'm so proud of them I mean Kimmel Ellen That's so cool Amazing so cool Amazing Literally I'm not jealous But how would you feel if your boyfriend then all of a sudden it like makes sense what's happening And then Josh says on the podcast that I'm calling him crazy or calling him I'm crazy I'm calling him thousands of times I called him twice I said hey it's important He said ok you can text it And I was like no I want to talk to I want to talk to you He runs to Jaden Obviously if it was me I would run to my friend and be like why is your ex texting me They didn't know we were broken up at that point So Josh was like yo your girlfriend's probably like yo your girlfriend is calling me what's going on J didn't tell him anything too clearly because I was on bffs podcast and literally Josh was like I really hope like it's not true I don't think it's true I don't think it's true This poor guy is walking around and they did not get with each other I believe they didn't get with each other So I'm just going to continue to believe that they didn't get with each other but he still did that He still went to Laguna he still lied to me about the message he deleted he still lied to me that seeing her He literally a man all the time And I always told him you know that was my best friend She now she's my enemy Kind of please tell me If she's ever somewhere you would want that Absolutely You would if you were in my position you would want that if that one guy was there Absolutely It's called respect It's not called being crazy It's not called being controlling it's called fucking respect in a relationship There's nothing worse than finding something out when you're not supposed to find it out by someone that you're supposed to be able the fucking trust literally like where's the fucking loyalty So Josh calls me crazy Whatever all of that happens on social media Then after telling Josh and me and Jay having a good conversation I think in my mind and I'm like damn I heard the song that says sabotage and I'm like so true I posted it as a joke Yeah I was mad I still posted that video as a joke Sabotage for me didn't mean cheat sabotage for me did not mean as like God with you You were my best friend and you didn't like me And so you literally do that You do that It's kind of worse I wish you would have gone with like that would have made it just like yeah you guys are thinking about doing something talking about it You're there like what the fuck you're going behind your back So when does does Josh know yet Um uh this morning um I saw some stuff on Twitter that said that Nessa was at Jane's house late at night because you know I haven't blocked on everything Same with Nessa and I saw things on Twitter saying that she was at his house late at night at 12 o'clock and then she was in his car at seven in the morning this morning Ok And I know them I know my ex-boyfriend's car I've been with you on and off for a year I know your damn car Ok She's in his car at seven in the morning and I texted him again You have one chance to tell me like what's going on I look crazy I'm texting back and forth I'm texting thousands of times calling him I don't care I don't care if I look crazy I want to know the truth He would not tell me And then at the very end he told me I like Nessa and I literally have screenshots this morning this morning That's why I came and cry this morning I literally have screenshots If you want to show them on here I have them He cannot deny that He didn't say that I sent it to Josh and I told him I'm not sending this to hurt you I'm not sending this to make anyone look bad I'm sending this to you to show you I am not crazy when I have a gut feeling I know it's true Right What did Josh say back He gave he gave me an emoji of a thumbs up and Jaden texted me and said Josh already knows it doesn't matter He's a man and wants me to be happy Josh must really hate himself if he's ok with that dude Josh Josh Josh Josh said a week ago I'm in love with that girl I'm going to marry that girl and I think we're going to get back together two days ago He says it's not I'm not gonna be with her because he found that out of course found that out and I found out this morning which is like if you liked her whether you liked her two weeks ago a month ago or else maybe you got feelings for her yesterday You tell me that right You don't have to fucking days or a week from now a month I could have found that out a year later Well I also think it's pretty fucked You're in a in an interesting situation where like you you've had a gut feeling you called him out you guys break up and then it's like well wait how do we how do I go from here Because you're saying that nothing was happening and then now something's happening And so it was like your your premonition was right All along Something was fucking going to go down and now I love Jaden I wish him the absolute fucking best I want him happy So if him being happy is being with Nessa be with fucking Nessa if you being happy is being with anybody else be with them because I want you happy His album fucking so good Literally can't wait for it to come out I will sit in the back and literally watch him perform I don't care It is literally the greatest album I've ever heard in my entire life And I'm not capping because I I'm in love with this person It is so fucking good and it's going to change people's fucking life when they hear it because I know why he wrote it He wrote that fucking album for Cooper And I don't know if you guys know Cooper's story but I fucking love that kid and he's gone through so much fucking shit in his life And I realize that that album is about Cooper about losing someone whether it's love a family member over drugs fucking mental abuse eating disorders anything that album is going to change people's fucking life And I'm so fucking proud of him And if him being happy is with her then fucking do it Like that's I think that's mature of you to say I hate that You're getting called crazy because I think it's really frustrating dude when guys when guys come out and they're like oh are you like nobody calls a guy crazy ever It's always on a check It's always on a chick and it's like how I'm sorry every girl is crazy Guys make girls crazy Juice world once said all girls are the same and he should have fucking follow it with all guys make girls insane and all guys are a pain He should have just fucking followed it with that All guys are a pain They make girls insane That's what he should have said dude It's so fucking true It's like no no we're not crazy Why am I being crazy though Because you're being fucking shady Don't do shit That makes a girl crazy period dude What are you OK Wait what are you thinking with Nessa then Like it's probably going to say some shit I fucking love Nessa I also wish her the fucking best I know she goes through hard times I know her entire life story I know her back story I know everything about her family I love her to fucking death and she was my best friend We lived with each other for about three months All we had was each other This is when me and Josh and Jane and everyone we all broke up ok This is a while ago This is around fourth of July 2 months before that we had nobody We literally only had each other ok And Nessa told me that she'll be there for me always I'll be there for her Always It reaches fourth of July right I've been living with Nessa for three months and I go home because something happened me and Jane got in an argument and I went home and wanted to go home I lived two hours away and then I called the next day hey can I come up I want the high house of the time You know I was like can I come with you I wanna go you know I just want my mind off of everything that's going on She said no nobody wants you here nobody likes you And then that's it And so at that point I knew she got with Chase and I hate to bring this up because I know this is really sensitive to a lot of people I love Charlie I love Chase I love Josh I love I love Nessa So I don't mean to bring this up but I know she'll come out and say this because I'm a bitch for this So she was being rude to me and I was like in my head I was like I'll be a bitch You want to be a bitch I'll be a bitch harder Me and Jaden were talking again He texted me the day after I just blew over everything and I was like you know what I wish Nessa the best whatever and I'm just not going to be friends with her anymore Jane texts me I go hang out with Jay and then I was talking to Jane and you're hanging out and I was like hey this is eating me alive So I just want to tell someone you can't tell Josh though I don't want to hurt his feelings I was like

Nessa got with Chase at that point That was like one of Josh's best friends And was he dating at the time No nobody was dating So it wasn't technically cheating But that's still like yeah I was laying in the same bed as Chase and it's a studio apartment I was in the bed with them Ok I look over at Chase and Chase goes I fell back asleep So I told Josh because Jaden said if you don't tell Josh I will I was like you know what I told you I'll tell Josh we called Josh He was on his way home from Vegas and we said hey we have something to tell you He goes I swear to God if you're about to tell me what I know you're about to tell me I'm gonna be really fucking mad He already had a feeling like you had a feeling now Yeah So it gives me chills Oh it's so gross So he came home and I was about to say it and then all the guys Cooper Jade and everyone that was there goes Nessa got with Chase and he threw the ring light threw it so pissed done with Nessa Nessa called me crying and saying your relationship with Jane is not gonna work out So you better take blame for me You better say you got with chase You better say it wasn't me you better because she doesn't know I told him and she's like your relationship with Jane's going nowhere My relationship with Josh is going somewhere You better take the blame for it do it now And I said ok I hung up didn't do it because I'm the one who told him she ended up finding out I told him and I said yes I did I'm not going to deny it bitchy move But what she did was a bitchy move too And at that point I didn't even think she was my friend anymore Months go by and with Jaden she's with Josh we meet in a room and we're like hey I forgive you I'm sorry I love you I want to be friends with you again Just let's forget the past We were stupid Immature young girls were over it She was becoming one of my best friends again We were getting so close and then they filmed a song together Jaden and Nessa song was great I was like go off go for it Yeah I was kind of like iffy about it Me and Josh were like ok Josh doesn't make a song together Um Fine Then she started being rude to me and everybody in the house and we were like ok it's fine Maybe she's just going through something it's fine And then she apologized to everyone but me and I was like ok so it's obviously something's deeper Well because I can I can imagine like at that point there's tension because like your boyfriend is with her and then you and Josh are kind of like there's a lot of tension that came over happening with this song and then obviously it escalated and unfortunately like your worst fears came true and then all of a sudden they're like basically together we're not together But yeah And so yeah that's really the whole story And have you talked to Nasa No that night I text her fuck you which is probably really bitchy to do

But I was heated in the moment and I was like fuck you And I was like if you don't answer me right now I will tell Josh and she didn't answer nobody would answer me except for Jaden Do you feel like you're it's unfair that you're getting painted as like being ridiculous for coming out with this I think it's unfair No because I did post that video and sabotage could mean multiple different things Do am I thankful that I get to stay on my side right now Yes Um Because I'm not crazy Anyone listening to this can even say no she's crazy She's doing this I want to know what are you crazy for What did you do You called your boyfriend when you thought that you found out that he was basically potentially going to hook up with NASA And he said he wasn't So I believed him and then he told me this morning he likes her But if he's happy he's happy How do you feel right now I kind of feel at peace Um But you were so emotional when you came in Was it just because like you got hit with that got hit with that news I was crying all morning I was like oh my gosh I have to go on this podcast I'm so sorry you're fine It's better now than later I knew it was going to cry anyway So I was like I'm not going to cry now and then I saw you and I was like I know I know and it's the first time we're meeting and I'm like fuck now we're having a and I was like are you sure you're fine You're like well fuck you No I'm not No I'm not No I know you walked in and I was like hello Are you OK And you're like no fuck she like literally walked in with sunglasses or hood up I'm like oh my God fuck literally like dude I I have a lot of respect for you that you're able to sit here And one I think it's great that you're telling your story But two I just feel like I think people need to be more understanding of you guys right now I think that like yeah people can say like oh they're like these little spoiled kids Well what if you were what if you had this platform what the fuck would you be doing And so I think it's like these are kids slash teen slash adults that are just trying to figure out their fucking life right now and you have a huge spotlight on you And I feel like you're mental health of every single day Someone being like I saw Nessa even saying like someone was like kill yourself and like you shouldn't be on this earth anymore It's like dude this is like go back to high school and college Like you guys are dating you're trying to figure it out There's gonna be catty shit There's gonna be people I've been cheated on I've cheated on people like shit fucking sucks But unfortunately people have to remember that you're on a larger scale you're on a platform now Everyone has an opinion And so yeah people can say you're crazy but I like to break it down and be like you're not crazy but you also have to think of these things You lose your boyfriend or your girlfriend you lose that entire family you lose that entire other family that you made your own I don't I don't have his sisters his mom you know what I mean Like you just lose all of that He gave me a promise ring and he broke it He didn't break the ring he gave me a promise ring that I'm going to marry you and I'm going to do this I'm going to do that and then you know things change and I don't wear the ring anymore What I can tell you is at 18 I had a boyfriend that I thought I was going to marry and then you're going to look back and be like probably half of these people won't even be in your life But I understand right now it hurts so fucking much Um I appreciate you coming on and telling your side of the story I'm really sorry that you had to find out in a nasty way dude Something about the ipads I found out my boyfriend was cheating on me through a fucking ipod I have to say if you want advice I'll give you advice right now Girls boys if you have a gut feeling in your stomach it's most likely 1000% true Thank you for coming Do you want to say share anything else Dude I'm so same as like I said from the beginning like love Jaden forever and always like like I said I I will sit in the back of your concert just to watch you perform one more fucking time because I know how talented you are and I know how much you actually want this I know his backstory I know his family story I know everything about that kid I know him better than anybody who will ever know him And I just wish him the fucking best because I did think I was going to marry him But I already told him if he wants to marry someone else and that makes him happy he can do it I think that that's a good way to look at it I also would say I actually think it's good that you kind of have them blocked not in a way but like you got to start to try to figure out like what your life is without them and maybe you'll eventually one day get back together But for now it's like you got to do your own thing and you can't be weighed down by two other people making a decision to either be maybe they won't even be together who fucking knows But like you've got to figure figure out your own shit and you got to take care of yourself and clearly you've got a little battle to go uphill right now because you were burned Someone lied to you You were getting people were being shady that creates trust issues Like how now all of a sudden the next boyfriend you have you're going to be like let me see your fucking ipad right Like it breeds insecurity when men are this happened to me or women whoever does it If you're lying to someone when you're in a break up he should have just broken up with you The minute he had feelings for her I was thinking of it He should have broken up with you And he tells me after we broke up that's when the feelings like came to play Not But it's like you were his girlfriend and you were listening to those voice messages while you were his girlfriend So no Yeah All my friends are telling me I'm oblivious and I don't see it but I just I believed him But it's hard to people can say it when you're looking on the outside like oh you're oblivious Like no because you're in love with someone And so it's really hard to see that they were saying I'm oblivious as is and like he fully is trying to get in You don't see it right And I'm saying but how were you supposed to see that when you're like well he's my boyfriend I believe him You believed him because you wanted to give them the benefit of the doubt because he's giving you a promise ring He's saying he loves you We just went into it too quick of we're going to make this work that it just made it worse Do you think there's any future of you guys ever getting back together right now No OK Um Yeah No not at all So just focus on yourself literally That's all you can do Focus on yourself if you're a believer lean on God Um What are you going to do People who are going to treat you right And not talk about him or her Yeah I was going to say like what are you going to do to get through this breakup Because it's so fucking public I'm doing everything I can I mean I kind of feel like me and Jane were holding each other back I mean I did acting lessons this week I did dance lessons I did vocal lessons I'm literally doing everything I can to just make myself a better person Acting is my one of my biggest goals is to be in a Marvel movie Oh my God I know you do sometimes people when you're in a relationship that's not moving forward and then you're like not focusing on yourself because you're focusing on the other person and clearly the other person was focus on you I went through this breakup I met Jay and I immediately started dating him which was a mistake So it's like you have to heal that hole in your heart fill it with God fill with good people fill with good friends and then be with that person You have to completely heal 110% be healed and then be with that person that you say you love or else it's not gonna work Yeah you got to be whole on your own and we just weren't healed We weren't making each other happy and that's not that's not our fault That's just how our love is I appreciate you telling your story Thank you Also please nobody hate on them Dude There's no there is no hate I think that's why everyone always has to tell their side of the story I think if you were just to like keep going you're going to still keep getting hate But it's like always know there's two sides of the story and usually both sides there's going to be differences in it because everyone's biased to their own opinion So it's like nobody will ever know the inner workings of your relationship with Jaden because they weren't in bed together They're with you guys No one will know the dynamic of you Josh Nessa Everyone like no one's going to know that But your story it makes sense I think calling you crazy Fuck right off anybody that's going to say that from this story because I'm a I'm a good test to be like no that's a little crazy I can be fucking crazy You did nothing crazy You had a gut feeling You went with it and now we're sitting here Thank you for coming on Thank you for having me It was really nice meeting you Oh my God I can't believe it He doesn't even know I'm coming on here and it sucks because he told me if you he goes if you go on Barstool right now which uh like what does he mean Go on barstools If you go on Barstool it's Josh's podcast So he'll just make you sound more Oh well they forgot there's a fucking another one And I was like and it's better So all my friends were like because if I'm gonna be completely honest I I literally never heard of your podcast I told my friend but her name is Taylor She goes she's moving to and she's literally gonna make like do this big thing And I was like who is that And she's like greatest podcast you'll ever hear in your entire life All the girls I lived with was like I'm gonna be you right now Like I they were like I don't give a fuck if I had to go through what you're going through you're on Call Me Daddy or what's your Daddy podcast And I was like OK you're like OK fine I guess this is the revelation Should I just make a tiktok of just like sitting here and being like the tea is fucking hot and then they turn it to you the tea is fucking hot
